Twelfth Sunday After Pentecost

1 September 2019

FROM THE RECTOR

This Sunday we read the parable of the Good Samaritan. Recent tradition and reading of this great parable have exclusively focused on the manner we are to care for our brothers and sisters, and the generosity that should be the hallmark of all Catholic believers. While there is definitely truth in this understanding, it is preceded by the more traditional understanding of the Good Samaritan as a manifestation and explanation for Christ’s presence in the world. The Lord has come to care for the wounds created by our sinfulness, to heal, and bind them for us. Moreover, not only does He tend to our souls, He also places us within the care of the Church, the spiritual inn that provides us comfort and allows us to heal. As we meditate on this parable and the wisdom of our Savior, let us first thank Him for His mercy and solicitude. Then, with grateful hearts, let us pledge to give to others that which we ourselves as received: compassion, mercy and love to all we meet!

RECENT BAPTISMS

In the last two months, the Oratory has been blessed with several baptisms. I am grateful to the parents of these infants for entrusting this community with the spiritual care and growth of their children. Please pray for these new members of the Catholic faith, for their parents and god-parents. Also pray in gratitude for the clear signs of growth Christ is providing for His Church. Contrary to popular opinion, in some corners of the vineyard, the Church is very much alive, well and thriving.

SAINT EDMUND CAMPION MISSAL & HYMNAL

The new Missal/Hymnals have arrived. In the next couple of weeks, we will be preparing them for use by our community. Particularly, we will need to insert the Marian Antiphons the community uses after the celebration of the 11:30 Holy Mass. Once this is completed, they will be in the pews by mid-September. Again, thank you to everyone who made this possible.
