FROM THE RECTOR

The capacity of the human person to be self-directed and willful is overwhelming. We might want to believe in our ability to give ourselves completely over to God; however, the reality and proliferation of sin make very clear the capacity of the human person for continued willfulness and confidence in his own abilities. As Catholics, one of the hallmarks of our growth in the spiritual life is a distrust of self, placing our complete confidence and trust in the Lord and His power to care for us and to save us. The more we allow grace to mold us into trustful creatures the more we also grow in the virtue of gratitude. Like the lepers in our Gospel today, we approach the Lord and beg for His mercy and the healing that always accompanies that mercy. Of course, the Lord cares for our bodies and physical well-being according to His Divine Providence. He also cares for our souls and provides us immediate remedy to the devastating impact of our sins. However, more often than not, we behave like the nine lepers, rejoicing in God’s blessings but failing to give Him praise and thanksgiving. Today, as we yet again approach the altar of sacrifice, let us strive to first rely completely upon the Lord and then recognizing His blessings, let us always return to Him and give Him thanks.

RECENT BAPTISMS

In the last two months, the Oratory has been blessed with several baptisms. I am grateful to the parents of these infants for entrusting this community with the spiritual care and growth of their children. Please pray for these new members of the Catholic faith, for their parents and god-parents. Also pray in gratitude for the clear signs of growth Christ is providing for His Church. Contrary to popular opinion, in some corners of the vineyard, the Church is very much alive, well and thriving.

- Juliana Clare Stock, daughter of Michael and Laura
- Veronica Rose Kenney, daughter of Dan and Elisabeth
- Edith Mae Chambers, daughter of Wesley and Jessica

SAINT EDMUND CAMPION MISSAL & HYMNAL

The new Missal/Hymnals have arrived. In the next couple of weeks, we will be preparing them for use by our community. Particularly, we will need to insert the Marian Antiphons the community uses after the celebration of the 11:30 Holy Mass. Once this is completed, they will be in the pews by mid-September. Again, thank you to everyone who made this possible.

FRESH OR FROZEN MEALS FOR THE STOCK FAMILY

Please help us welcome to the Oratory little Juliana Clare born on 8/2 at 8:44 pm to Mike and Laura Stock. We want to provide meals for this family for the next six weeks on Tuesdays and Sundays. They are a family of 5 with two adults, a 4-year-old, a 19-month-old, and their newborn. They are happy to accept frozen or fresh meals and do not have any food allergies nor any food preferences. Feel free to also use take out, gift cards or delivery services if you are unable to make a meal from scratch but would still like to assist this family. If you have any questions, please contact Carla Filla at 636-579-0208 or fillacarla@gmail.com. Sign up for a meal at <https://takethemameal.com/LPQW1979>.

MASS INTENTIONS

The Oratory of SS. Gregory and Augustine is always in need of Mass intentions. The intentions are satisfied at Holy Mass normally according to when they are received. If you have a particular day you would like a Mass prayed for your particular intention, please include that information when making the request. Recently the Bishops of the state of Missouri agreed to increase the offering for the stipend from $5.00 to $ 10.00. Please remember to pray for all of our deceased loved ones.
