FROM THE RECTOR

We are all called to strive for holiness in our daily lives; to seek to become Saints! The recent canonization of St. John Henry Cardinal Newman and several others reminds us that cooperation with God’s grace is indeed possible if we strive mightily to conform ourselves to His will. So too, St. John Newman reminds us of the need for sacrifice and a joyful embrace of the Cross of Our Savior. This willingness to suffer and sacrifice makes itself manifest when we cloth ourselves with virtue. St. Paul in his exhortation to the Ephesians, reminds us to put on the new Man who is Christ, and this involves a life of justice and holiness in truth. Becoming the new creation we are called to be also requires an abhorrence of sin avoiding any and all things that might lead us to sin, mortal and venial sin alike. Our participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass strengthens us to strive for the holiness, and to cloth ourselves in the mantle of virtue so that we might be more Christ-like in our daily lives. Moreover, as we continue to honor Our Lady in this month of October, let us have fervent and constant recourse to Her, especially through Her Most Holy Rosary, to follow Her example and to welcome the life of Christ into our very existences.

CHRIST THE KING

+++++

ALL SAINTS DAY

For the celebration of the Solemnity of All Saints (Friday, 1 November) we will celebrate the usual Holy Mass at 12 Noon with confessions before at 11 am. Since it is also First Friday, we will celebrate a Solemn High Mass at 7:00 pm with confessions preceding at 6:00 pm.

+++++

ALL SOULS DAY

For the Commemoration of All Souls (Saturday, 2 November) which is also First Saturday, we will celebrate a Solemn High Mass at 8:00 am with confession preceding at 7:00 am. All are encouraged to attend and to pray for All the Faithful Departed and to keep the First Saturday devotion given to us by Our Blessed Mother.

ALL SAINTS CELEBRATION: Party & Potluck

Please join us for our annual All Saints Day Party and Potluck after the 11:30am Mass in the St Joseph Room on Sunday, November 3rd. Children are encouraged to dress up as a Saint for the day while they enjoy the activities and games which will be held on campus (outdoors, weather permitting). Please bring your dish for the potluck to the St Joseph Room.

Since our culture has so easily turned to the darkness of the world, the activities of Halloween have taken on a different meaning than they would have in decades past. Each family is able to recognize Halloween as they deem appropriate; however, the celebration of All the Saints is a fitting way to not only allow our young people to dress up but also to celebrate the victory of Christ made manifest in His Saints. Participation in the party and potluck is another activity that allows all of us to rejoice in the light of Christ and the holiness to which we are all called.

Ladies, mark your calendars for the Oratory’s First Annual Advent by Candlelight on December 7 at 6:30 PM. Gather together with women of the Oratory and friends of our community for an evening of prayer, reflection and fellowship. Msgr. Morris will be our speaker for the evening. This is wonderful way to enter into the season of Advent. Also, we are in search of hostesses who would be willing to coordinate a table with 7 friends. If you are interested in hosting a table and/or for more information, please contact Cory Grizzle at 636-675-3721 or tcgrizzle@charter.net.

MISSALS

A few practical notes: In the front cover of the book is the Prayer to Our Lady of Walsingham that is prayed by our community after the 11:30 am High Mass on Sundays. In the back of the Missal are the Marian Antiphons that are chanted after High Mass on Sunday. You will also notice that a number appears underneath the heading of each antiphon which refers to the corresponding musical notations in the hymnal section of the Missal. Finally, please take a moment to familiarize yourself with the Missal. I am so grateful for this clear manifestation of our stability and growth as a community of faith.
