4th Sunday of Advent

December 22, 2019

FROM THE RECTOR

Our time of deliverance is almost near. It is a great gift in the Liturgical Calendar to be able to celebrate well the Fourth Sunday of Advent. Often, the proximity of Christmas overshadows this last Sunday of the Advent season. Fortunately, this year we are provided another opportunity to contemplate the coming of our Lord in history and His coming at the end of time. So too, we our accompanied in this meditation by Isaias the prophet, St. John the Baptist and most blessedly, Our Lady. With these great companions we cannot help but to be drawn more deeply into the mysteries we celebrate and to allow ourselves to be transported to Bethlehem and Nazareth; to witness the travails of Our Lady and St. Joseph as they seek to find shelter during the great census. Moreover, we pay heed again to the words of the Baptist who calls us to repentance for the remission of our sins, preparing ourselves for the one who comes with fire to transform the world once and for all. The Church is truly a sensitive and diligent Mother, providing Her children chance after chance to think on the things of God, to repent from sins and to live the life to which God calls us. Let us use these remaining days not to get caught up in the secular and profane; rather, through meditation, times of solitude however brief, and prayer to welcome Christ anew into our hearts. A Blessed Christmas to you all!

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

The celebration of the Lord’s Birth on Christmas Day will be slightly different from years past. The principal Holy Mass will be at Midnight. This will be High Mass assisted by our choir. On Christmas morning, the Oratory will celebrate Holy Mass at 10:30 am. This will be Low Mass without the presence of the organ. Part of this schedule is determined by the Holy Mass being celebrated by Saint Luke at 9 am on Christmas morning.

PREVENT & PROTECT STL

formerly known as Protecting God’s Children; Safe Environment

The Archdiocese of St. Louis has developed a new system for safe environment compliance called Prevent and Protect STL. Everyone ministering to minors and vulnerable adults (clergy, employees, and volunteers) in the Archdiocese are required and asked to register in the new system before December 31, 2020. This includes those new to service and those who are currently in service. For those who have already attended a Protecting God’s Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this new system. In addition to attending a live Protecting God’s Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers, and employees will register for an updated background screening, view two new online training modules on abuse reporting and the Code of Ethical Conduct, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct. Please go to www.preventandprotectstl.org to register and contact your parish Child Safety Coordinator with any questions or for further assistance.
