Quinquagesima

February 23, 2020

FROM THE RECTOR – Quinquagesima

Love and sacrifice are beautifully wedded to each other when Christ mounts the Cross. Throughout His public ministry, the Son endeavored by word and deed to make manifest the Father’s love for His chosen people. God offered Himself time and again and was rejected time and again through the sinfulness of the people and their refusal to be obedient to the covenant. The Father never abandoned us because of the love He bears us and in the fullness of time the gift of His Son is the definitive manifestation of that love He has towards us. For His part, the Son is obedient to the work and will of His Father including the gift of His broken body and the shedding of His precious blood. Like His Father, the Son embraces the cross because He loves us. As it is for Christ, so it must be for us. With joy, confidence, and peace we must embrace our daily crosses and the motivation for our joyous embrace must be the love shown to us by God that we desire to return. Simply put: if we accept God’s love and return that love to Him, the most concrete manifestation of this love is the Cross. What greater gift of love could you offer than to give your life as ransom for others. Embrace your daily crosses, pray for the opportunity to sacrifice, and truly love others as God loves you.

FOSTERING EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

I have been approached about the possibility of having Eucharistic Adoration at the Oratory. I am very excited about the possibilities that exist before us. As the community has continued to grow, we are now able (I believe) to move forward with increasing our devotional life. There are at least two possibilities before us. Option #1: A Holy Hour after the 11:30 am Mass on the First Sunday of the month. Option #2: Extended Eucharistic Adoration from the conclusion of Holy Mass on First Friday until to the evening Mass on First Friday. Option #2 provides a longer period of time for Adoration which I think would be spiritually profitable for the whole community.

In order for Option #2 to be viable there needs to be enough interest from the faithful to make sure that at least two people are present with Our Eucharistic Lord every half hour during the period of adoration.

In the coming weeks, a survey will be made available to the community to see in which direction we will be able to move. As you wait for the survey please prayerfully consider what time you might be able to make available to be with Our Eucharistic Lord.
