FROM THE RECTOR – Second Sunday after Pentecost

In the Holy Gospel for today the Lord speaks about a wedding banquet, an image of the Eucharistic sacrifice into which we are all invited. Sadly, as the parable indicates a great many people refuse the Lord’s invitation and reject a place at the table of God. There should be profound sadness at the ease with which men will neglect or ignore the blessings and bounty of God. However, the Gospel along with the recent celebration of Corpus Christi provide the opportunity to meditate upon the gift of our Eucharistic Lord and the dedication needed to make ourselves worthy recipients of such a great gift. We must root out any disposition that would have us reject the true and abiding presence of the Lord. Likewise, we must resolve to spend time with Him in gratitude for the blessings received and with the desire to deepen the intimacy that He has forged with us in His blood. Our Catholic faith in the Eucharist sets us apart from the rest of the world; and like the Lord’s cross, the Eucharist is a stumbling block for many who refuse to humbly submit to God’s plan for salvation. For those of us who do believe, the Most Holy Eucharist is the living source of our hope and confidence in the Lord. Let us rejoice and give thanks that we have been found worthy not only to be invited to the Lord’s banquet but also to take our place at His table.

UPDATE FROM MSGR. MORRIS

You may have noticed that I have not been genuflecting as required by the celebration of Holy Mass. The reason for this is knee problems in my left knee. Genuflecting acerbates the issues. There is surgery and rehabilitation planned in the near future which means the not genuflecting will continue. So too, it might be necessary to cancel weekday Masses for a time to allow for recovery. I will certainly keep everyone informed of what is happening as I receive more information. I would ask that you continue to pray for me and for a speedy recovery.

Also, it is becoming increasingly more difficult to get assistance for weekday Masses. Many of the priests who celebrate the Extraordinary Form already have Mass commitments during the week that preclude their availability. So too, some have been assigned as pastors or are working in parishes that are too far away to make their assistance possible. Knowing these circumstances, we have arrived at a point that when I am not present during the week (on retreat, vacation, or away for a conference) there will be no daily Mass scheduled. I will certainly make the effort to find replacements if that is possible. Given the recent prohibition against public Mass, this is not something that I want to do or that I do easily; however, in order to take time for retreat or vacation this will be necessary. For Sunday Mass there will always be a priest present. In advance, I appreciate your patience and forbearance.

ADDITIONAL HOLY MASS:

In order to provide everyone an opportunity to be present at Holy Mass on Sunday there will be an additional Holy Mass at 6:45 am. The 8:00 am and the 11:30 will continue as normal. At the 6:45 am and 8:00 am Low Masses there will no homily given. The 11:30 am High Mass a brief homily will be given. At this juncture, I am asking the faithful to consider being present for the 6:45 am Low Mass so that we will be able to keep social distancing, and all be present for Holy Mass. Also, at this time there will be no sign-up sheet for Mass. However, if we arrive at the situation where there are more people at 8:00 am or 11:30 am it could necessitate people signing-up prior to Sunday Mass and once a Mass time is filled with the allotted number of parishioners you would have the opportunity for a second or third choice. Again, at this time I am relying upon the faithful to spread themselves out over the three (3) Holy Masses available.

NEW MASS AND CONFESSION SCHEDULE

Holy Mass:

- Monday & Friday @ 12:15 pm
- Tuesday & Thursday @ 7:00 am
- Wednesday @ 6:30 pm
- Sunday @ 6:45 am, 8:00 am and 11:30 am

Confessions:

- Monday & Friday from 11 am until 12 Noon
- Wednesday from 5:00 pm until 6:00 pm

ONGOING CHURCH CLEANING

So too, we are encouraged to wipe down the pews, doors and public areas after each Mass. The sealant/disinfectant that is being applied to all surfaces in church by Woodward stays active on all surfaces for two weeks; they recommend using a dry cloth to wipe down all surfaces after each Mass. If you are able and willing to assist with this after the Holy Mass you attend, please contact me (msgrmorris@gmail.com) or Donna (osgaoffice@gmail.com) and let us know.

PUBLIC MASSES/RESPONSE TO COVID-19

I encourage everyone to read the Archdiocesan regulations regarding the wearing of masks and the practices connected to keeping good social distance. This past Sunday, of our three Masses, the 8:00 am was the most crowded. While I am extremely grateful for the Mass attendance for the whole weekend, we will need to be cognizant of our numbers at each Mass. At this juncture, the Oratory will move forward with what we did last week. Everyone’s cooperation, patience and forbearance are extremely appreciated. As always, if there are questions or concerns, please direct those to the Rector, Msgr. Morris.

ATTENTION – ALL VOLUNTEERS

If you have already gone through Protecting God’s Children and volunteer with the various ministries for our parish you are REQUIRED, if you want to continue serving in that capacity, to register in the new system before December 31, 2020.

This includes those new to service and those who are currently in service. For those who have already attended a Protecting God’s Children workshop, your previous training date will transfer to this new system. In addition to attending a live Protecting God’s Children workshop, all clergy, volunteers, and employees will register for an updated background screening, view two new online training modules on abuse reporting and the Code of Ethical Conduct, and agree to the updated Code of Ethical Conduct.

Please go to www.preventandprotectstl.org to register.
THE PASSCODE is stlprotect

Please take the time to do this so we are in compliance.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus,
I believe that you are truly present
in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I am not able at this moment
to receive You sacramentally,
I ask that you spiritually enter into my heart.
I embrace You and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen. (Padre Pio)*
