Men of science... can "considerably advance the welfare of marriage and the family and also peace of conscience, if by pooling their efforts they strive to elucidate more thoroughly the conditions favorable to a proper regulation of births." It is supremely desirable... that medical science should by the study of natural rhythms succeed in determining a sufficiently secure basis for the chaste limitation of offspring. In this way scientists, especially those who are Catholics, will by their research establish the truth of the Church's claim that "there can be no contradiction between two divine laws—that which governs the transmitting of life and that which governs the fostering of married love." Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

July 5, 2020

FROM THE RECTOR – Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

Both the Epistle and the Gospel provide the opportunity to meditate on the life of virtue, especially the virtues of mercy and compassion. In his epistle, St. Peter exhorts us to compassion for each other striving mightily to preserve our brotherhood, our communion in the Lord. What an appropriate exhortation given the circumstances of the day. Recently members of our own Oratory community were under attack for their defense of the faith, Catholic history, and culture. Praying peaceful at the statue of St. Louis, King of France, these faithful were vilified, spat upon, and mocked as they prayed the Rosary in defense of the true faith. What greater witness could be provided except the shedding of blood. While I cannot speak directly to the hearts of each person present during this prayerful demonstration, what was witnessed were men and women putting into practice what St. Peter calls us to: love and compassion with a desire to preserve our common bond of unity in Christ. In the Gospel from St. Matthew, the Lord tells His disciples that their life of virtue must surpass that of the Scribes and Pharisees. As faithful Catholics we are not allowed to do the bare minimum but must follow the exhortation of St. Ignatius of Loyola: Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam – to God be given the greatest glory. As such, our charity, compassion, forbearance, and patience must always outshine those around us, especially our enemies. We set this goal for ourselves not for undue attention, but to truly live out the message of the Gospel. The current culture climate is going to continue to provide us with opportunities to witness to the truth. Let us pray for each other that we may do so with the mercy and compassion that comes from the Heart of Christ!

IN GRATITUDE

I want to thank everyone for the prayers during my recent knee surgery. Thank you also to all who brought food and made sure I had all the things I needed. I am most grateful to the whole Oratory for their solicitude and concern for the Rector. All is going well, and I am making the progress that is expected. This time of recovery has revealed to me yet again how blessed I am truly am to serve as your rector. Each of you, through your generosity, your prayerful witness and love of Holy Mother Church, make me a better priest. Please know, even if I fail to express it at times, how dear each of you are to me. You are always in my daily prayers. Thank You!

1 JULY 2020

The Feast of the Most Precious Blood celebrated this past Wednesday was the 3rd Anniversary of the First Mass celebrated by the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine here at the Church of Saint Luke. In the two years we have been here, the Lord has truly blessed the Oratory, not only through financial stability but also through an increase of parishioners, many of whom are finding the Traditional Latin Mass for the first time. Our growth, stability, and continued strength are all reflections of the power of the Traditional Latin Mass and the fruit of fidelity to the things of God. Let us give thanks to God for the blessings He has bestowed upon us and entreat Him to continue to guide the success of the work of the Oratory.

LIGHT FIXTURE IN CHURCH

Most of you have noticed, by now, that the light near the high pulpit is out. We are not ignoring the issue and are trying to get it repaired. Unfortunately, it is not a simple fix of replacing the bulbs. The fixture is not getting any power to it which means the electricians will need to bring in a lift since they cannot solve the mystery with our scaffolding, which was not tall enough. In advance, thank you for your patience as we work to fix the problem.

DIRECTORIES ARE AVAILABLE

If you have not done so, please pick up your copy of the Oratory Directory. If you were pictured in the Directory, a copy is set aside for you in a white envelope in the back of Church on the Oratory table.

ADDITIONAL HOLY MASS:

In order to provide everyone an opportunity to be present at Holy Mass on Sunday there will be an additional Holy Mass at 6:45 am. The 8:00 am and the 11:30 will continue as normal. At the 6:45 am and 8:00 am Low Masses there will be no homily given. At the 11:30 am High Mass a brief homily will be given. At this juncture, I am asking the faithful to consider being present for the 6:45 am Low Mass so that we will be able to keep social distancing, and all be present for Holy Mass. Also, at this time there will be no sign-up sheet for Mass. However, if we arrive at the situation where there are more people at 8:00 am or 11:30 am it could necessitate people signing-up prior to Sunday Mass and once a Mass time is filled with the allotted number of parishioners you would have the opportunity for a second or third choice. Again, at this time I am relying upon the faithful to spread themselves out over the three (3) Holy Masses available.

PUBLIC MASSES/RESPONSE TO COVID-19

I encourage everyone to read the Archdiocesan regulations regarding the wearing of masks and the practices connected to keeping good social distance. While I am extremely grateful for the Mass attendance for the whole weekend, we will need to be cognizant of our numbers at each Mass. At this juncture, the Oratory will move forward with what we have done in previous weeks. Everyone’s cooperation, patience, and forbearance are extremely appreciated. As always, if there are questions or concerns, please direct those to the Rector, Msgr. Morris.
