Men of science... can "considerably advance the welfare of marriage and the family and also peace of conscience, if by pooling their efforts they strive to elucidate more thoroughly the conditions favorable to a proper regulation of births." It is supremely desirable... that medical science should by the study of natural rhythms succeed in determining a sufficiently secure basis for the chaste limitation of offspring. In this way scientists, especially those who are Catholics, will by their research establish the truth of the Church's claim that "there can be no contradiction between two divine laws—that which governs the transmitting of life and that which governs the fostering of married love." Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 27, 2020

FROM THE RECTOR – Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

Love and humility: perfect companions for excellence in the spiritual life. In the Epistle to the Ephesians, Paul exhorts them to utilize the virtue of humility in their walk of life. Whatever vocation you possess, live it fully through the virtue of humility which will assist you in living out the other virtues commensurate with your call. Moreover, the virtue of humility assists us in remaining one in Christ forging the bonds of authentic unity and harmony. A fair question to ask is how does humility do this? The answer is actually simpler than we think. The virtue of humility tempers our passions, and fosters in us a distrust of self, of our minds and intellects. As a consequence of this intellectual humility we are more inclined to be receptive of the words of others, realize that we do not know everything and deferential before the wisdom of the ages and faithful before us. What should always prompt swift humility is a deep and abiding love of the Triune God and the things of God. As the Gospel relates, love is the greatest commandment: we love God above all things and joyful enter into relationship with Him because He is worthy of our love. In this way we learn to love our neighbors as God loves us which requires humility to follow the Lord and fosters true and lasting harmony.

MASS INTENTIONS

While Gregorian Masses will continue to be offered here at the Oratory, we are once again in need of Mass Intentions for Holy Mass. It has been communicated that there are particular days that the faithful would like to request and I am willing to honor those requests if received in a timely manner. In order to facilitate the opportunity to have a Mass Intention celebrated on a particular day for a departed loved one, a special occasion, or a special intention please contact Donna in the parish office (644-2144 x10). As a reminder, the offering for a Mass intention is $10 per Mass.

When you call to request a particular day, remember that Mass is normally celebrated only on First Saturday and one of the Sunday Masses must be celebrated for the faithful of the Oratory. So too, if and/or when requests come for Gregorian Masses you will be contacted if that impacts the date you requested for Holy Mass. Holy Masses are now being schedule for January 2021. Please contact Donna with any questions and/or to schedule a Mass intention.

VISITING CLERGY

With the addition of a 3rd Mass on Sunday at 6:45 am, I have asked for assistance from some of my brother priests to offer one of the Sunday Masses. Periodically, depending on their schedules, there will be visiting clergy at either the 8 am Low Mass or the 11:30 am High Mass. We are specifically blessed with the assistance of Fr Conedera, SJ and Fr. Linus Dolce, OSB. Please pray in gratitude for their generosity and for an increase in priestly vocations.
