Men of science... can "considerably advance the welfare of marriage and the family and also peace of conscience, if by pooling their efforts they strive to elucidate more thoroughly the conditions favorable to a proper regulation of births." It is supremely desirable... that medical science should by the study of natural rhythms succeed in determining a sufficiently secure basis for the chaste limitation of offspring. In this way scientists, especially those who are Catholics, will by their research establish the truth of the Church's claim that "there can be no contradiction between two divine laws—that which governs the transmitting of life and that which governs the fostering of married love." FROM THE RECTOR – Saint Luke/ Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

Today we celebrate the Feast of Saint Luke the Evangelist. How fitting and proper that we do so in the Church dedicated to him and rely upon his on-going intercession. As a disciple of St. Paul, who converted him, St. Luke was in a unique situation to witness the life of the early Church which he presents in the Acts of the Apostles. So too, from St. Luke we garner a large share of our information about the early life of Our Lord and the particular information we have about Our Lady. St. Luke is described as the historian of Christ’s meekness because he preserved some of the most poignant parables of Our Lord illustrated the gentle and compassionate face of Our Savior. Since our arrival here at St. Luke the Evangelist we have been blessed with growth, prosperity, and stability. We need to continue to call upon his intercession assisting the Oratory in the work of evangelization to which St. Luke dedicated his life. We also commemorate the Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost and take comfort the power of faith and the mercy of the Lord manifest in the Gospel from St. John. The ruler with the ill son knows of the power of the Lord, hears that he is nearby and desires from Our Savior that his son be healed. It is the man’s faith and trust in the Lord that leads Him with confidence to entreat the Lord for healing for his son. Of course, Our Lord is full of mercy, compassion, and love and fulfills this man’s desire. So, it will be for us: we must approach the Lord with faith and confident trust knowing that He will give us truly what we need. Always be mindful that the Lord is never outdone in generosity.

CHRIST THE KING

The celebration of Christ the King is Sunday, October 25th and we will honor Our Lord and King with a Eucharistic Procession, Adoration and Benediction. At the completion of the 11:30 am Holy Mass we will begin the procession and upon our return to Church have a time for Adoration. At the completion of Adoration, we will conclude with Benediction. If you already come to an earlier Mass, please plan to return after the 11:30 am Mass for the Procession. May Christ the King always reign in our hearts.

Those young people recently confirmed and those who made their First Holy Communion are invited to dress in their communion clothes and participate in the procession.

ALL SAINTS/ALL SOULS

All Saints Day, 1 November 2020, is a Sunday this year. In addition to our normal Sunday schedule we will celebrate a Holy Hour and Vespers for All Saints beginning at 4:30 pm and concluding with Benediction at 5:45 pm.

For All Souls Day, Monday, 20 November 2020, priests are given the privilege of celebrating three Masses. We will celebrate the normal 12:15 pm Holy Mass along with Holy Mass at 7 am (Low Mass) and 7 pm (High Mass). As our Catholic duty we should constantly be praying for all the souls in purgatory especially our own loved ones. This is a grace-filled opportunity to apply the merits of the greatest prayer of the Church to all the faithful departed.

NEW KNEELERS

The new kneelers have all arrived and are installed. They are a marked improvement over what was in the Church. I am truly grateful for all those who assisted in making this project possible. Thank you for your generosity!

MASS INTENTIONS

While Gregorian Masses will continue to be offered here at the Oratory, we are once again in need of Mass Intentions for Holy Mass. It has been communicated that there are particular days that the faithful would like to request and I am willing to honor those requests if received in a timely manner. In order to facilitate the opportunity to have a Mass Intention celebrated on a particular day for a departed loved one, a special occasion, or a special intention please contact Donna in the parish office (644-2144 x10). As a reminder, the offering for a Mass intention is $10 per Mass.

When you call to request a particular day, remember that Mass normally celebrated on First Saturday and one of the Sunday Masses must be celebrated for the faithful of the Oratory. A FINAL THOUGHT: “If Communism ever comes to America it will come via secularism. Secularism paves the way for atheistic Communism and totalitarianism by eliminating God and religion from public as well as private life. Secularism weakens family ties by denying personal responsibility to God.” ~ Edward Cardinal Mooney (former Archbishop of Detroit)

THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS:

Toward a deeper understanding of the Extraordinary Form of the Holy Mass

PRESENTATIONS ON THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS

Since our arrival at Saint Luke the Evangelist, the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine has continued to welcome new members, some familiar with the Extraordinary Form and some who are new to the Traditional Sacraments.

New and old alike are invited to three consecutive evenings to assist all the faithful in coming to a deeper understanding of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The purpose of these three evenings is to explain the structure and movement of the Mass; provide a better understanding of the theology of Holy Mass; assist in better using the Edmund Campion Missal in the pews or your own hand missal. These talks serve as an introduction for those new to the celebration of the Extraordinary Form and a refresher to those who have been parishioners of the Oratory for years. Adults 18 and over are encouraged to attend these evenings.

WHO: Msgr. C. Eugene Morris, Rector – Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine

WHEN: Tuesday Evenings from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

WHERE: The Church of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine (this venue will allow us to accommodate large numbers and maintain appropriate social distance)

TOPICS:

- October 13th: Introduction to the Holy Mass
- October 20th: Part I: Mass of the Catechumens
- October 27th: Part II: Mass of the Faithful

FURTHER DETAILS: In order to properly prepare study aids, please contact Donna Mueller (314/925-8989 ext.10 or 314/644-2144 ext. 10 or osgaoffice@gmail.com) to reserve a place for these evenings.

“First of all, we must never forget that the Mass is a Sacrifice, an act by which the Church gives to Almighty God, officially and in the name of all, worship of the highest kind, adoration or Latria, which is due to Him alone, in virtue of the supreme excellence of His divine Being from which everything comes and to which everything must return. Therefore, the Mass is offered only to the three Persons of the Blessed Trinity.” (from the St. Andrew Daily Missal)
