Second Sunday of Advent

December 6, 2020

FROM THE RECTOR – Second Sunday of Advent

The season of Advent provides us with the opportunity to contemplate the glories of the Incarnation. The celebration of the birth of Our Lord in history is met with profound joy as we also prepare ourselves to meet Our Lord in His glory at the end of time. Christ has come, Christ is coming, and Christ is with us now. For us, these three realities are separated by time and space but because of His great generosity they are bound together and alive in the mystery of the Most Holy Eucharist. Through the Living God we have contact with His mercy and rightly receive from Him justice and judgement. These days of Advent exhort us to a renewed sense of sorrow and reparation for our sins, a deepened awareness of the Lord’s mercy and an intensified expectation of the glories to come. While the penitential character of Advent is less intense than that of Lent, it is still important to make sacrifice, deny ourselves and to take up our Cross and follow Him. Soon comes our Lord and King; Hasten to adore Him!

PRAYERS AFTER LOW MASS

Those who attend daily Mass or the two early Masses on Sunday may have noticed the addition of several intercessions in the Prayers after Low Mass. I have added the invocation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Our Lady of Walsingham and Ss. Gregory and Augustine. This was done in order to invoke our Patroness and Patrons on a daily basis. I likewise appreciate that for the recitation of the Holy Rosary on Mondays and Fridays these invocations have likewise been added. Let us have constant recourse to Our Lady and Ss. Gregory and Augustine for the spiritual health, well-being and growth of our Oratory.

NEW FAMILIES for OCTOBER (alphabetical order):
