FROM THE RECTOR – Sexagesima

During the season of Septuagesima, the Church sets before us for contemplation Adam, Noah and Abraham, Old Testament figures who are intimately involved in salvation history. Through the lessons in the Divine Office, the Church sets before for our contemplation, Noah and his ark. Noah’s fidelity to the Lord and obedience to the will of the Father along with his constancy during the flood are a foreshadowing of the coming of the salvific work of Christ and the response that we should have to Our Savior and what He accomplishes for us. Like Noah, we are called to fidelity and obedience; so too, fidelity and obedience are fruits of the cleansing waters of baptism that Christ provides for His chosen ones. If the ark saved the world at one time, the wood of the cross has saved the whole world for all time. These weeks prior to the beginning of the Lenten season are given to us to prepare well for the necessary spiritual sacrifices required to be Christ’s disciple. So, we continue to prepare for Lent and strive to root out sin and grow in holiness. Let us give particular attention to fidelity and obedience as necessary virtues in our spiritual growth joining these virtues on the foundation of humility. Let us pay heed to St. Paul’s exhortation to the Corinthians and find our strength in suffering and glorify the Lord through our sacrifices.

THE GENIUS & TIMELINESS OF THE TRADITIONAL LATIN MASS

Again, my gratitude to Dr. & Mrs. Robert Morgan for their generosity to the Oratory which allowed us to purchase The Genius and Timeliness of the Traditional Latin Mass by Dr. Peter Kwasniewski. Everyone is encouraged to take home a copy for themselves or to pass this book on to someone else. As the subtitle of the books reminds us, the celebration of the Traditional Mass and Sacraments is a reclaiming of our Roman Catholic birthright and the Oratory community and its growth reflects the fruit of this process of rediscovery.

RECORDED HOMILIES

With this past Sunday, Msgr. Morris has returned to recording his homilies which can be found on the Oratory website (stlouislainmass.com). This will allow Msgr. Morris to preach only one Mass on those weekends when he celebrates all three Sunday Masses.

ON-GOING EDUCATION

The next series of talks planned for the Oratory will be on the nature and meaning of sacrifice in the Holy Mass. Beginning March 16th and continuing on the following two Tuesdays (March 23rd and March 30th) we will have the opportunity to more deeply explore the saving sacrifice of Christ and our participation in the triumph of His sacrifice at Holy Mass. All talks begin at 7 pm and will also be videoed for those unable to attend.

SEASON OF SEPTUAGESIMA AND LENT

The season of Septuagesima has begun and provides us with the opportunity to better prepare ourselves for our Lenten Season which begins on Wednesday, 17 February 2021. In order to spiritually assist the faithful of the Oratory during the Lenten season there will be additional opportunities for confession.

During Lent, in addition to the times already published, confessions will be heard before the 7 am Masses on Tuesday and Thursday, beginning at 6 am. These confession times will begin on Thursday, 18 February 2021.

We will also have the morning of Confessions on Saturday, 27 March 2021 from 9:00 am until 12 Noon.

Stations of Cross will be celebrated each Friday of Lent immediately following the 12:15 pm Holy Mass.

Finally, the schedule for Holy Week has been determined and again will have the opportunity to celebrate each day of the Sacred Triduum. This information is shared early so that you might plan your schedules accordingly: HOLY THURSDAY @ 4:00 PM; GOOD FRIDAY @ 3PM; HOLY SATURDAY @ 4:00 PM.

All of this information will continue to be available both in the bulletin and on-line. Also, there will be a sheet on the Oratory table in the vestibule that will have all this information for our Lenten season.

SEWING HELP NEEDED

The Oratory is in need of experienced sewers (machine sewing and hand sewing) to help prepare Passiontide veils and the Altar of Repose for Holy Week. If you are interested in helping, please contact Anna Kalinowski at kalinowskianna2014@gmail.com. May God reward you for your generous gift of time and talent!

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Did you know: A Knights of Columbus Council was started at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine in late 2019. The Council has aspirations to do great things in service to the Oratory, to support the Extraordinary Form of the Mass, and for the community at-large. The Coronavirus pandemic has hindered our ability to meet and accomplish much, but we are still recruiting and open for membership. If you are a Knight and wish to transfer your membership, or are interested in joining, please contact Chris Horan (cmhoran@protonmail.com). Vivat Jesus!

FACE MASKS

The Oratory has recently been informed that a parishioner from St. Luke has reported us to the Archdiocese for not wearing facemasks into and on the way out of the Church. This is diocesan regulation: facemasks must be worn coming into Church and departing. Once you have arrived at the pew you are free to do as you wish with the mask. I remind everyone again of their need to comply with this regulation. It has been communicated that if we do not comply, we run the risk of being shut down. I understand the conflicting issues regarding individual freedoms and governmental interference in sacred worship.

*Our Lady of Walsingham, intercede for us who have recourse to thee!
Ss. Gregory and Augustine, pray for us!*

Nevertheless, I am asking, for the sake of the good work that is being accomplished, the growth that we continue to experience and the manifold graces of the traditional Holy Mass that everyone make a concerted effort to weak their masks accordingly. Please contact me directly with any concerns you may have.

THE HOLY SACRIFICE OF THE MASS:
Toward a deeper understanding of the Extraordinary Form of the Holy Mass

PRESENTATIONS ON THE MASS AS SACRIFICE

This series of talks is a continuation of the initial presentations on the Holy Mass celebrated in the Extraordinary Form. In October 2020, three presentations covered a cursory overview the Holy Mass and then the second and third presentations went into specifically details about the structure and parts of the Mass of the Catechumens and the Mass of the Faithful.

These talks will serve to expose us more deeply to the Mass as Sacrifice. Taking place during the Lenten season, these reflections will also serve to prepare us well for the depth of the mystery celebrated during the Sacred Triduum and the joyous celebration of Easter. During these talks, the following topics will be covered: the Holy Mass and the mysteries of Christ; the Holy Mass and the Paschal Mystery; the Holy Mass and the expiation of sins; the graces of the Holy Mass; how to devoutly assist at Holy Mass. Adults 18 and over are encouraged to attend these evenings.

WHO: Msgr. C. Eugene Morris, Rector – Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine

WHEN: Tuesday Evenings from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

WHERE: The Church of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine (this venue will allow us to accommodate large numbers and maintain appropriate social distance)

TOPICS:

- March 16th: Christ and the Holy Mass
- March 23rd: The Nature of Sacrifice and the Holy Trinity
- March 30th: The Graces of Holy Mass & Devoutly assisting at Holy Mass

FURTHER DETAILS: In order to properly prepare study aids, please contact Donna Mueller (314/925-8989 or 314/644-2144 (x10 for both) or osgaoffice@gmail.com) to reserve a place for these evenings.

“First of all, we must never forget that the Mass is a Sacrifice, an act by which the Church gives to Almighty God, officially and in the name of all, worship of the highest kind, adoration or Latria, which is due to Him alone, in virtue of the supreme excellence of His divine Being from which everything comes and to which everything must return. Therefore, the Mass is offered only to the three Persons of the Blessed Trinity.” (from the St. Andrew Daily Missal)
