Third Sunday after Pentecost

June 13, 2021

FROM THE RECTOR – Third Sunday after Pentecost

The infinite mercy of God should be a constant source of contemplation for us as we navigate our lives of faith in this world. The Epistle from St. Peter reminds us of the temptations that are present in the world and the strength to resist comes only from Christ. We are all too aware of the times we succumb to temptation and must again return to God, beg His forgiveness and rejoice in His Divine Mercy. As often as we might fall, Our Lord is always there to pick us up if we are able to remain steadfast and constant. Our Savior manifests His desire to save us and raise us up through the parable in our Gospel from St. Luke. The Lord goes after the Lost Sheep and each time we stray the Good Shepherd is there to bring us back to the fold. These images provide content for reflection but should also motivate us to strive mightily to always remain with the Lord. The constancy required for the journey of faith is not easy to achieve, but through His mercy and grace all things are indeed possible.

MASS INTENTIONS 2021 / 2022

I am grateful to all those who have requested Mass intentions to be celebrated here at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine. At this time, the Masses for 2021 are complete. The Mass Intentions submitted now will be satisfied either through additional Masses celebrated this year or placed on the calendar for next year (2022). If there any questions, please contact the Rector. In advance, thank you for your generosity and your willingness to entrust your intentions to the Oratory.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Did you know: A Knights of Columbus Council was started at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine in late 2019. The Council has aspirations to do great things in service to the Oratory, to support the Extraordinary Form of the Mass, and for the community at-large. The Coronavirus pandemic has hindered our ability to meet and accomplish much, but we are still recruiting and open for membership. Meetings are the 3rd Thursday of the month. If you are a Knight and wish to transfer your membership, or are interested in joining, please contact Chris Horan (cmhoran@protonmail.com) or the Oratory office. Vivat Jesus!
