Do not abandon me. Do not

Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

July 4, 2021

FROM THE RECTOR – Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

The Lessons for the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost encourage our reflection on the sacraments of baptism and Holy Eucharist. The sacramental life of the Church, especially these two great sacraments, provides us the means by which we not only receive sanctifying grace from God but also through that very grace we are able to render worthy praise and adoration to Him. As Paul reminds the Romans, baptism is the means by which we are able to fully share in the Paschal Mystery of our Savior. To die with Christ in baptism is also to live with Him and to share in the restored, reborn life He gained for us on the cross. Of course, baptism and confirmation are the proper preparation for the reception of the Most Holy Eucharist. The Lord gives us Himself in the Eucharist so that we will have constant contact with the powerful effects of the cross. We should never take for granted the gifts given to us in our Catholic faith through the sacraments; so too, we should guard against underestimating the power of God’s grace given through baptism and the Eucharist. Our hope for the world, our Church and ourselves is founded on the manifestation of God’s love for us present in the sacraments. Let us strive to live this week alive in Christ Jesus our Lord!

All altar servers are invited to a picnic at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary on Tuesday, 3 August 2021 from 10 am until 3pm. We are being sponsored by our seminarian, Joseph Martin, who will give us a tour after which we have the opportunity to swim in the pool and have lunch on the seminary grounds. There will also be a need for parental involvement in making sure everyone arrives at the seminary and to chaperone while the servers are there. More information to come.

Also, if any young man who has already received his first communion is interested in serving at the altar, please contact Msgr. Morris.

HOLY WATER

Holy Water has returned to the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine. The holy water that is currently in the fonts was blessed during our celebration of the epiphany. So too, you will notice a new holy water container in the back of Church across from the baptistry. This water was also blessed at Epiphany. Please feel free to bring your own containers for holy water and make use of that which is available to us. Going forward, the water in the fonts and the in the container will be blessed according to the traditional ritual.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Did you know: A Knights of Columbus Council was started at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine in late 2019. The Council has aspirations to do great things in service to the Oratory, to support the Extraordinary Form of the Mass, and for the community at-large. The Coronavirus pandemic has hindered our ability to meet and accomplish much, but we are still recruiting and open for membership. Meetings are the 3rd Thursday of the month. If you are a Knight and wish to transfer your membership, or are interested in joining, please contact Chris Horan (cmhoran@protonmail.com) or the Oratory office. Vivat Jesus!
