The Fiat of the Eternal Father, say every morning: My beloved Father, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Be thou my Father. Be always my eternal Father. Do not leave my soul.
Do not abandon me. Do not leave me out of Your sight, my Father, for I am Your child, whom You have created to please You, to adore You, to honor You, living my days as You have given me the license to live it. I offer up this Fiat, through Mary, to Jesus, to You, Eternal Father.

Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

July 11, 2021

FROM THE RECTOR – Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

It is difficult at times to overcome the tendency to trust only in ourselves, in what we know, can see, can verify. This tendency has intensified in its frequency over the last several centuries due to technological and scientific advancements. There are so many concrete manifestations of the ability of the human person to take care of himself that there really does not seem to be a reason to have trust in God. While our nation continues to claim a Christian identity, the majority of those who profess faith in Christ live as if the Lord of Hosts has not conquered the world. To give ourselves over to God’s Divine Providence is never an easy feat. Conquering our willfulness and subduing our pride is the daily challenge of the Catholic life. Of course, for all the signs of man’s success and prowess there are as many signs of self-destruction, failure, and weakness: the destruction of the unborn, the licentiousness of culture, the breakdown of family life, and the general lack of social civility point toward the destructive fruit of living as if God is not in charge. Moreover, our intellectual hubris often causes us to believe we know more, know better than Holy Mother Church endangering our trust in the Lord who is the Master of us all. And He truly is! Our task is to trust Him, keep faith and remain steadfast and confident in Him. Regardless of the world, good – bad – indifferent, my only true choice is to trust in the Lord at all times!

There will also be a need for parental involvement in making sure everyone arrives at the seminary and to chaperone while the servers are there. More information to come.

Also, if any young man who has already received his first communion is interested in serving at the altar, please contact Msgr. Morris.

Please feel free to bring your own containers for holy water and make use of that which is available to us. Going forward, the water in the fonts and the in the container will blessed according to the traditional ritual.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Did you know: A Knights of Columbus Council was started at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine in late 2019. The Council has aspirations to do great things in service to the Oratory, to support the Extraordinary Form of the Mass, and for the community at-large. The Coronavirus pandemic has hindered our ability to meet and accomplish much, but we are still recruiting and open for membership. Meetings are the 3rd Thursday of the month. If you are a Knight and wish to transfer your membership, or are interested in joining, please contact Chris Horan (cmhoran@protonmail.com) or the Oratory office. Vivat Jesus!
