Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

July 25, 2021

FROM THE RECTOR – Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

It is often a hard conversation to remind the faithful of the reality of hell as the most absolute punishment of our sinful ways. Our Savior speaks often of mercy, makes manifest forgiveness and shows forth His compassion and love. Sadly, there are some who receive these manifold blessings from Christ and see them as the seal of approval to continue upon destructive paths, whatever those paths may be. The mercy, love, forgiveness, and compassion of Our Savior are not license to do as we please but the exhortation to strive for even greater holiness. To persist in sinfulness is to run the risk of being separated from the saving work of Christ, not only in this life but also in the life to come. God does not want us to be apart from Him in anyway, but His love respects our freedom and if we freely, consciously choose sin over grace and truth we will be separated from the One who gives meaning to our lives. These are hard realities to contemplate, harder to accept, and even harder to overcome and to live rightly with the Lord. However, grace received through the sacramental life of the Church provides the sure and certain hope that we are able to cooperate with His grace. Let us pray for those who have gone astray and given their lives over to sin; let us pray for ourselves that we may remain constant in striving for holiness; let us constantly entreat our heavenly Father to grant us forgiveness and mercy.

FEAST/FESTIVAL OF SAINT LOUIS

In the coming weeks you will be receiving information regarding the liturgical celebrations for the Feast of St. Louis, Wednesday, 25 August 2021. I would encourage everyone to participate in as much as their schedules will allow. The celebrations begin the day before (24 August) with First Vespers and Benediction at 5:30 pm at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis and concludes on the feast day itself with a Marian Procession to and recitation of the Rosary at the Apotheosis of St. Louis statue in Forest Park. This was a remarkably beautiful experience last year and your prayerful participation will allow us to celebrate well the patron of our archdiocese.

THE RELICS AT SS. GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

The veneration of relics and their placement either in the mensa (table) of the altar or near an altar is an ancient and venerable tradition attested to from the very early writings of the Church Fathers. The Council of Trent addresses the importance of relics: “The holy Synod enjoins on all bishops, and others who sustain the office and charge of teaching, that, agreeably to the usage of the Catholic and Apostolic Church, received from the primitive times of the Christian religion, and agreeably to the consent of the holy Fathers, and to the decrees of sacred Councils, they especially instruct the faithful diligently concerning the intercession and invocation of saints; the honor (paid) to relics; and the legitimate use of images: teaching them, that the saints, who reign together with Christ, offer up their own prayers to God for men; that it is good and useful suppliantly to invoke them, and to have recourse to their prayers, aid, (and) help for obtaining benefits from God, through His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who is our alone Redeemer and Savior.” (Session 25).

The Oratory currently is blessed with the relic of 12 saints situated on the ledge underneath the tabernacle. The four closest to the Tabernacle on either side are: St. Augustine of Canterbury & St. Bede the Venerable (Blessed Mother/Gospel side); St. Gregory the Great & St. Benedict (St. Joseph/Epistle Side). These were the four original relics that have been a part of the Oratory liturgical life since its inception. The other relics are:

Blessed Mother/Gospel Side

St. Aloysius Gonzaga
St. Sylvester
St. Mary Magdalen De Pazzi
St. Simon Stock

St. Joseph/Epistle Side

St. Marguerite Bourgeoys
St. Anthony Mary Claret
St. Maria Goretti
St. Gemma Galgani

In the coming weeks more information, both factual and inspirational, will be provided to you so that these Holy Men and Women can assist us in drawing closer to our Eucharistic Lord.
