FROM THE RECTOR – 17th Sunday after Pentecost

Give God everything and all shall be well. It sounds easy to do but our lived experience tells us otherwise. There are times when our natural inclinations move us toward a greater trust in ourselves instead of the grace and providence of God. Sacred Scripture exhorts us to the necessary humility which allows us to walk with God in Christ. The only way we can truly grow in trust and holiness is to give ourselves over to the Father’s divine will. This is a life-long project and must be practiced daily. The constancy with which Holy Mother Church exhorts to humility clear indicates its value and necessity in the Christian life. We need to guard ourselves from assuming that the walk with Christ makes us His equal. Instead, the journey upon which we find ourselves is successful only when we follow the Lord. Our following after the Lord will be easier and more filled with joy if we are motivated by love. Obedience, duty, and obligation are praiseworthy motivations for putting on the life of Christ; however, the root of those three should be love. I obey, due my duty and fulfill my obligations because I know that I am loved and seek to manifest that love in return. Let us pray for an increase in both our love of the Lord and our humility before Him. Through these gifts from God, we will be able to journey with Him in this life on our way to glory with Him forever!

IN THANKSGIVING

Thank you to all those who planned, executed and participated in the celebrations for the Feast of St. Louis, King of France. Again, this year we were able to honor our patron well and to be strengthened through his example and intercession. A great many people were involved both in preparation and during the celebrations themselves. Please know of the gratitude of the whole Oratory community. St. Louis, King of France, pray for us!

IN THANKSGIVING (Part II)

A word of gratitude for everyone who assisted in the celebration for Fr. Bede Price, the first rector of the Oratory. He was/is truly grateful for having had the opportunity to celebrate his priestly anniversary with his spiritual family here at the Oratory. I am grateful, as his successor, that we were able to show him our gratitude for his life of sacrifice and service. Again, thank you to everyone who participated in any way for making it a wonderful celebration.

EMAIL NEWS

If you are not subscribed to the Oratory’s emails please sign up via our website at: https://stlouislatinmass.com/contact-us. Scroll down to the bottom of the page and complete the information under “Join Our Email List”. The only information you need to provide is: your first, last name, and your email address. We send the weekly bulletin on Fridays and we send all pertinent news, notifications of schedule changes, etc. via email. The best way to stay informed, aside from reading the bulletin, is to subscribe to our email list.

BLESSED ITEMS

If you wish to have items blessed please drop them off at the rectory (Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm) and include your name and telephone number. Please make sure all items are clearly marked. Once Msgr. Morris has blessed the items Donna will call you to let you know the items are ready for pick up (from the rectory office, Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm).

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Thank you to everyone who has spent time with Our Lord in Eucharistic Adoration on Wednesday and First Friday over this past year. We welcome and encourage all new parishioners and all those who have not yet participated in Adoration. While we have had success, there is still more needed from us. Please consider scheduling an hour with Our Lord. We are in specific need for the following times which do not have an Adorer on Wednesdays: 10 – 11am; 12:30 –1:30pm and 2:30-3:30 pm and First Friday 11am-12pm. Most other hours have only one committed Adorer. Please be mindful that Our Eucharistic Lord may never be left alone and exposed on the altar. Hopefully we can fill these hours and others with sufficient adorers to guarantee that Our Lord is not alone.

At oratory.weadorehim.com/en, you can sign up for new adoration commitments, change your existing commitments, request a substitute, and edit your notification preferences. For assistance or questions please contact Susan Buchheit 703-255-1622.

ORATORY TITHING

I am most grateful for the immediate response to our on-going financial responsibilities. Despite the challenges we face, the Oratory community continues to grow with new families joining each month.

As a reminder, the needed amount for each week is $8,692.00. Given the circumstances recently thrust upon us from Rome, it is even more important that we are able to demonstrate our ability to financially sustain ourselves. I recognize that increased tithing will be a sacrifice and I ask you to prayerfully consider what you are able to give and if you are in position to offer more in the weekly collection.

Again, please know of my sincere gratitude for your generosity throughout our time here at St. Luke the Evangelist and also as we move forward.

The Fiat of the Eternal Father, say every morning: My beloved Father, Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Be thou my Father. Be always my eternal Father. Do not leave my soul. Do not abandon me. Do not leave me out of Your sight, my Father, for I am Your child, whom You have created to please You, to adore You, to honor You, living my days as You have given me the license to live it. I offer up this Fiat, through Mary, to Jesus, to You, Eternal Father.
