Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, it is hoped that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislainmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

IN THANKSGIVING

Dear Knights of Columbus and the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine,
What a wonderful way to celebrate the feast of Saint Louis, King of France who is a patron of the poor! Your generous donations of food and toiletry items to the Saint Vincent DePaul Society at Saint Luke's are so greatly appreciated! This time of the year our supplies are low as people usually donate more at Thanksgiving and Christmas; because of your donations we are now able to help more families with a variety of food items. Thank you again for helping us feed the poor and needy!

With much gratitude,
Members of the Saint Luke the Evangelist
Saint Vincent DePaul Society

CHRIST THE KING

The celebration of Christ the King is Sunday, October 30th. We will honor Our Lord and King with a Eucharistic Procession, Adoration, and Benediction. At the completion of the 11:30 am Holy Mass we will begin the procession and upon our return to Church we will have time for Adoration. At the completion of Adoration, we will conclude with Benediction. The afternoon will conclude with Vespers at 3:00 pm. If you already come to an earlier Mass, please plan to return after the 11:30 am Mass for the Procession, Adoration and Vespers. May Christ the King always reign in our hearts.

Those young people recently confirmed and those who made their First Holy Communion are invited to dress in their communion clothes and participate in the procession.

ALL SAINTS/ALL SOULS

All Saints Day, 1 November 2022, is a Tuesday this year. In addition to our normally scheduled (7:00 am Low Mass), we will celebrate Holy Mass at 12:15 pm with confessions at 11:00 am and then again at 7:15 pm that evening with confessions at 6:00 pm

For All Souls Day, Wednesday, 2 November 2022, priests are given the privilege of celebrating three Masses. Holy Masses that day are: 6:30 am (Low Mass); 12:15 pm High Mass; 6:30 pm (High Mass). Confessions on All Souls Day will be at 11:00 am and 5:00 pm. As our Catholic duty we should constantly be praying for all the souls in purgatory especially our own loved ones. This is a grace-filled opportunity to apply the merits of the greatest prayer of the Church to all the faithful departed.

HOLY MASSES IN OCTOBER

You may have noticed that there have been several days when Holy Mass/Confessions are not celebrated during the week. This allows the rector to be gone for both professional and personal reasons. In October, Holy Mass/Confessions will not be celebrated the first week of October (3 October thru 7 October) as all the priests will be at the Lake of the Ozarks for the Archdiocesan Priests' Convocation. At the end of October, the rector will be absent for a gathering of priests in Arkansas. Please be aware of these dates so that you can plan accordingly for daily Mass and Confession. Also, please share this information with those who do not attend regularly here at the Oratory. Finally, thank you for your patience and forbearance.

ORATORY CHOIR

The Oratory's polyphonic choir has resumed. If you have been thinking about joining the choir, this is an excellent time to do so! Please prayerfully consider directing your time and talents to glorify the Lord in this way. Contact Mrs. Kenney at choir@oratorysga.org if you are interested.

THE ORATORY CO-OP

The Oratory Homeschool Co-op began just a few weeks ago and is now in full swing. This year there are two days to accommodate the great need for this in our community. We are so blessed to be able to have this in our parish. The co-op is fairly self-sufficient, supported by our parents and our parish; however, there are a few items on our wish list that are wanted/needed by our teachers. If anyone has these (listed below) or knows of a place that might donate these, please send an email to Cory Grizzle at co-op@oratorysga.org.

- *Cotton quilting fabric for our sewing class
- *Wooden rocking chair or glider for our library
- *Smaller comfortable accent chair for reading stories in our littles literature class
- *Any good condition (preferably library bound) classic and or Catholic books for our library
- *Any large, easily cleanable toys for nursery that serves infants to 3 years old
- *Any sewing notions or material

NEW EMAILS & BULLETIN UPDATE

The Bulletin has undergone some changes! With our increased numbers has come increased activity and the need for better, safer and more secure means of communication. The bulletin today contains new emails addresses for the staff and organizations of the Oratory. You are asked to begin using these new emails immediately to communicate with staff and the organizations of the Oratory. As we begin this new process, we ask for patience as a time of transition can still be complicated. I am grateful for the many manifestations of our growth as a people of faith. God is truly rewarding the good work He has entrusted to us all.

COALITION FOR LIFE

40 days for Life: Wednesday, 28 September to Sunday, 6 November. The Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine has chosen not to have a designated day to pray because the need to fill every hour of the campaign has become more difficult. We hope this allows people to have a more flexible schedule to cover the empty days.

On 1 September, Planned Parenthood reported to KMOV a large increase in procedures and is predicting 12-hour shifts including Sundays. The need to pray for the complete end of abortion is still great and necessary.

Please call Coalition Life @ 314-827-4039 to sign up for prayerful witness to women from across the Midwest and South, and to support the counselors who daily save lives in Fairview Heights. For more information call Rory Miller @ 314-393-0722.

ALTAR SERVERS

The following are the dates for training for this semester: 10 October; 24 October; 7 November; 21 November; 5 December; 19 December. Training begins on these days promptly @ 4:30 pm. All returning servers are asked to attend. Any young man who has made his 1st Holy Communion is invited to serve at Holy Mass. Those new servers are interested should email the Rector (servers@oratorysga.org) regarding their interest in serving at Holy Mass.

MEN'S SCHOLA

The men's schola would like to announce that it is accepting new members. The schola offers the opportunity to assist at Holy Mass and the Divine Office, as well as offering instruction in Latin and fraternity outside of the liturgy. Any man over the age of 18 wishing to audition for the schola can contact Nicholas Kalinowski at schola@oratorysga.org for more information.

ORATORY TITHING

I am most grateful for the immediate response to our on-going financial responsibilities. Despite the challenges we face, the Oratory community continues to grow with new families joining each month. Our weekly collection has increased because the Oratory has assumed more responsibilities for the physical plant and daily operations of the Church of Saint Luke.

As a reminder, the needed amount for each week is $11,500. I recognize that increased tithing will be a sacrifice and I ask you to prayerfully consider what you are able to give and if you are in position to offer more in the weekly collection.

Again, please know of my sincere gratitude for your generosity throughout our time here at St. Luke the Evangelist and also as we move forward.

FROM THE RECTOR – Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

We are all called to strive for holiness in our daily lives; to seek to become Saints! Canonizations, and the process of reaching this state, remind us that cooperation with God’s grace is indeed possible if we strive mightily to conform ourselves to His will. So too, the saint-martyrs remind us of the need for sacrifice and a joyful embrace of the Cross of Our Savior. This willingness to suffer and sacrifice makes itself manifest when we cloth ourselves with virtue. St. Paul’s exhortation to the Ephesians exhorts us to put on the new Man who is Christ, and this involves a life of justice and holiness in truth. Becoming the new creation that we are called to be also requires an abhorrence of sin avoiding any and all things that might lead us to sin, mortal and venial sin alike. Our participation in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass strengthens us to strive for this holiness, and to cloth ourselves in the mantle of virtue so that we might be more Christ-like in our daily lives. Moreover, as we continue to honor Our Lady in this month of October, let us have fervent and constant recourse to Her, especially through Her Most Holy Rosary, to follow Her example and to welcome Christ more deeply, intensely into our own lives.
