Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

LITANY OF HUMILITY

Lord Jesus. Meek and humble of heart, Hear me.
 From the desire of being esteemed, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being loved, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being extolled, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being honored, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being praised, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being preferred to others, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being consulted, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the desire of being approved, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being humiliated, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being despised, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of suffering rebukes, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being calumniated, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being forgotten, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being ridiculed, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being wronged, Deliver me, Jesus.
 From the fear of being suspected, Deliver me, Jesus.

That others may be loved more than I,
 Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be esteemed more than I,
 Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That, in the opinion of the world, others may increase and I may decrease, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be chosen and I set aside,
 Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be praised and I unnoticed,
 Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may be preferred to me in everything,
 Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.
 That others may become holier than I, provided that I may become as holy as I should, Jesus, grant me the grace to desire it.

— Rafael Cardinal Merry del Val (1865-1930)

FROM THE RECTOR

The Second Sunday after Easter is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday reminding the newly baptized and initiated members of the faith to cling to Christ the Good Shepherd. This also serves as a reminder to all members of the family of God that they are to hold fast to the faith that is rooted in the Cross of Christ. In the Epistle St. Peter reminds us of the price paid by Christ for our transgressions. He also reminds us that the Lord's sufferings are the example we should follow in our daily lives. The only way for us to carry our daily crosses is to allow the voice of God to lead and guide us. And, in order for us to hear His voice we must put aside self-directedness, willfulness, and pride. St. Peter reminds us: "For you were as sheep going astray: but you are now converted to the shepherd and bishop of your souls." To grow in humility, the cardinal virtue to deepen our trust in the Lord, requires a willingness to be humiliated. I would encourage the daily praying of the Litany of Humility attributed to and popularized by Cardinal Merry del Val. This great servant of God, Cardinal del Val, was known for his priestly zeal and pastoral charity coupled with a profound love of Christ and Holy Mother the Church. The Cardinal credits his growth in the virtue of humility as key to his ability to better cooperate with the graces of God. So, it must be for us as well. We must strive to grow in the virtue of humility to allow the other graces of God to flow easily in our lives. Christ is the Good Shepherd who cares deeply for the well-being, both spiritual and physical, of His sheep. For our part, we must rejoice in being members of His flock, docile and obedient to His voice so that we might also respond generously and promptly to His will.
