Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

THE GLORIA IN EXCELSIS: CHILDREN'S CHANT CAMP

Hosted at Epiphany of Our Lord by Father Michael Rennier and taught by Jeff and Wendy Wisniewski, this chant camp is for children K-12. We meet 7:45-12noon the week of July 10-14. During the week, the children learn to chant a Mass setting from the Liber and, at the end of the week, they provide the music for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. This year, the end of week Mass will be hosted at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory & Augustine on Friday night, 14 July at 6:30pm. For more information and to register, go to our website - <https://epiphanystl.org/choir-camp>.

ORATORY SCHOLA

Laudetur Iesus Christus! The men's Schola is pleased to announce that they are hosting Dr. David Foley from Saskatchewan, Canada for an extended visit. Dr. Foley holds his degree in Medieval Studies from the University of Toronto. In addition to helping us make more Hours of the Divine Office and their traditional chants accessible to the faithful at our Oratory, Dr. Foley will contribute to our parish by transmitting his knowledge of Latin, medieval manuscripts, and biblical commentaries to the community. Please stay tuned for updates to our liturgical schedule and devotional publications. For more information about the Schola and the different ways you may collaborate with us, please refer to the bulletin insert or visit us as scholastl.org. Pax Domini vobiscum!

CONGRATULATION -- NEWLY ORDAINED PRIESTS

Yesterday at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis, Saturday, 28 May 2023, the Archdiocese of Saint Louis ordained five me to the sacred and Holy priesthood:

- Rev. Allen Boedecker
- Rev. Jacob Braun
- Rev. Joshua Deters
- Rev. Ryan Quarnstrom
- Rev. Jacob Wessel

We give thanks to God for continued spiritual blessings on the Archdiocese; we pray for these newly ordained priests and the sacrificial service they are undertaking; we pray for an increase of priestly vocations and vocations to consecrated religious life

CONGRATULATIONS -- GRADUATES

Congratulations to all those who were graduated this spring from grade school, high school and college. Blessings to the parents, family and friends who sustained and supported all the recent graduates from the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine. Know of the prayers of this whole community as you move to the next phase of your life and your on-going journey with the Lord and Holy Mother the Church

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS/MEN'S GROUP

The Oratory Men's Group, the Knights of Columbus council #17355, will meet again on Thursday, June 22 at 7:00 pm in the St. Joseph Room. Refreshments will be provided.

DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS

During the summer months there will be several times that daily Mass is cancelled during the week. I will be giving a retreat, participating in several conferences and taking some vacation time. If it is possible that a priest is available, then the schedule will remain as usual. There will always be a priest present for Holy Mass on Sundays. The Mass intentions for days that there is no Holy Mass are still fulfilled by me when I celebrate Holy Mass that day. I appreciate both the patience and the prayers of the faithful of the Oratory. Know that you are always in my daily prayers.

CELL PHONES

There have been an increasing number of cell phones ringing during Holy Mass. Please be sure to silence your cell phones before entering Church. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

COFFEE HOUR

Coffee hour will be taking a summer vacation starting this week and will resume in early September. We are in need of space to stage all of the moving pieces during the transition; will be using the St. Joseph Room to enable us to complete the necessary projects during the next couple of months. Please consult the calendar for any changes to the schedule. If you are interested in helping with set up/clean up once we resume coffee hours this fall, please contact Stephanie Maret at 314-972-2900 or Stephanie.French.Maret@gmail.com.

MASS INTENTIONS

The celebration of Holy Mass for particular intentions, especially for our beloved faithful departed, reflects the faith of our community in the transformative power of the sacramental grace of God. Please continue to have Holy Masses offered for particular intentions. At this juncture, the calendar at the Oratory is full for 2023. Any Holy Mass intentions received going forward will be placed on the calendar for 2024. Please contact the rector with any questions or concerns.

SCHEDULING BAPTISMS

The Oratory is blessed with a growing community that is evident by the increased number of baptisms. Given that the Oratory (for the time being shares) the space with St. Luke the Evangelist along with the other liturgical rites celebrated by the Oratory itself, it is prudent to schedule baptisms on the 2nd and 3rd Saturdays of the month beginning at 9:30 am. There will be Saturdays that no baptisms can be scheduled because of various liturgical events but keeping baptism on these two Saturdays will assist in scheduling for both parents and the Oratory. Families expecting newborns and anticipating that they will be baptized here at the Oratory, should schedule their baptism at the earliest convenience.

PRAYERS FOR THE SICK

In your charity, please pray for the following members of the Oratory who are ill: William Allen, husband of Barbara Allen; Jim Griffin, husband of Kay Griffin; Jeanmarie DeCoster; Shane Kiser, husband of Maggie Kiser; Siena Koschoff, daughter of Daniel & Katie Koschoff; Dotty Kuhlmann, mother of Donna Mueller; Michael Norfleet, son of Marsha Norfleet; Elizabeth Ryan; Deacon Steve Pieper; Christi Reinlein, Monica Sampson, friend of Msgr. Morris; Patrick Schneider; and Kathleen McCarthy Smith, mother of Susan Pickert.

Also, if you are aware of members of the Oratory who are sick or you yourself are sick and/or hospitalized and in need of prayers, please contact the Oratory at the earliest moment so that prayers can be offered for you and your loved ones.

FROM THE RECTOR

The infinite mercy of God should be a constant source of contemplation for us as we navigate our lives of faith in this world. The Epistle from St. Peter reminds us of the temptations that are present in the world and the strength to resist them comes only from Christ. We are all too aware of the times we succumb to temptation and must again return to God, beg His forgiveness and rejoice in His Divine Mercy. As often as we might fall, Our Lord is always there to lift us up if only we are able to remain steadfast and constant. Our Savior manifests His desire to save us and raise us up through the parable in our Gospel from St. Luke. The Lord goes after the Lost Sheep and each time we stray the Good Shepherd is there to bring us back to the fold. These images provide content for reflection but should also motivate us to strive mightily to always remain with the Lord. The constancy required for the journey of faith is not easy to achieve, but through His mercy and grace all things are indeed possible.

*Our Lady of Walsingham, intercede for us who have recourse to thee!
Ss. Gregory and Augustine, pray for us!*

CANTORES SANCTI LUDOVICI

FROM the earliest centuries of the Church's history, laymen and lesser ministers have established different structures to assist their clergy. Among the most ancient and revered of these institutions is the Roman Schola cantorum ('school of singers'), consisting of men devoted to chanting the official prayers that Holy Mother Church has always guarded as her richest sources of Grace: the Holy Mass and the Divine Office. In keeping with this tradition, Msgr. Morris asked me to look into establishing such a Schola as part of the Oratory of Sts. Gregory and Augustine. Just over one year later, our Schola received IRS-approved 501(c)(3) status as a non-profit organization under the title Cantores Sancti Ludovici.

By the Grace of God, this status allows us to raise funds so that our Schola may serve the Church as a full-time entity. Our principal aim at this time is to enrich the spiritual life of the Oratory's faithful, both families and individual members, in the first place by singing the divine praises on their behalf and inviting them to participate in the venerable chants of the Divine Office. It is our hope to offer to our parishioners and pilgrims the same daily cycle of liturgical worship that finds glorious expression in traditional Benedictine monasteries like Gower and Clear Creek. Building naturally upon these liturgical foundations are our intellectual apostolates: courses, lectures, and publications on Gregorian chant, medieval theology and Biblical commentaries, Latin, and the liberal arts, all offered by respected scholars.

The tradition of the Schola cantorum, which originated with God's primary revelation to the Hebrews in the Old Testament and which was exquisitely enriched by the Catholic Church for nearly two millennia, has gone virtually extinct outside of the monastic setting during the last century. For us securely to establish our Schola in St. Louis, it is essential that the Cantores achieve financial stability both on a yearly basis and ultimately with an endowment. At this time, we hope that donations for our various apostolates will amount to $100,000 annually, to cover the lodging and living expenses of two full-time cantors, part-time and guest cantors, a library, and different academic projects.

If you are interested in donating to our Schola, or if you would like to know how our apostolates can benefit you, please do not hesitate to contact me, Nicholas Kalinowski, at info@scholastl.org, or (314) 230-6104.

Please be assured of our prayers before the altar of God!

In Sancto Ludovico,

Nicholas Kalinowski, Precentor

AS OF 1 June, certain members of our men's Schola (Cantores Sancti Ludovici) have been blessed to make their abode in the house directly next to the Oratory. Apart from enabling us to offer the faithful of our community a more regular participation in the public celebration of the Divine Office, these lodgings present us the opportunity to establish a communal life for the Schola as Catholic laymen rooted in liturgical prayer, theological study, and teaching the liberal arts.

We are now in the process of furnishing this home as a traditional space that is fit, not simply for living, but for sacred study and contemplative prayer. To this end, we are in need of a variety of items, which are listed below. If you happen to have any of these for sale or donation, we would be immensely grateful if you could send photographs of them to us at info@scholastl.org.

- ❖ Large wooden dining room set (8+)
- ❖ Crucifixes and antique religious items
