THE ORATORY OF SAINTS
GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

The image shows the interior of a Gothic oratory. The focal point is a large, ornate altar with a central crucifix. The altar is flanked by two tall, narrow niches, each containing a statue of a saint. The architecture is highly detailed with Gothic tracery and pinnacles. The lighting is soft, highlighting the white marble of the altar and statues.

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislainmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

SUMMER SCHEDULE

Summer is upon us. As a reminder: beginning on 1 July 2024 and concluding on 14 August 2024 the Oratory will have only one daily Holy Mass at 12:15 pm with Confessions at 11:00 am. The Saturday and Sunday schedules (both Masses & Confession times) will remain the same. The office hours during this time will be Monday through Thursday from 8:00 am until 2:30 pm. The office will be closed on Fridays. There will be no one to answer the phone or answer the rectory door on Fridays. Please plan your needs accordingly. These scheduling changes allow the priests of the Oratory to take vacation and more importantly to make their canonical retreats. So too, the changed office hours will allow our dedicated staff time for vacation.

THE INSTITUTE OF CATHOLIC CULTURE

What is a Church Father? The Institute of Catholic Culture is offering a free on-line course on the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Church, men including St. Athanasius, St. Jerome, St. Ambrose, St. Augustine, and others. The class will run from August 1 through December 12, 2024 on Thursday evenings from 7 p.m.-8:15 p.m. There is NO CHARGE for this live webinar, taught by Dr. John Pepino. Registration is open until July 18. For more information or to register, go to: <https://instituteofcatholicculture.org/register/patristics-102/>.

GIRLS' GUILD: ICE CREAM SALE

The Our Lady of Walsingham Girls' Guild will be selling frozen treats in the Oratory piazza (white tent area) following the 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday, 21 July. All proceeds will go towards the purchase of Girls' Guild supplies. May God bless you for your support.

ELECTRIC UPDATE

The work continues on the electrical in the Church. We are making progress and it is hoped that work will be completed by the end of July. As with all projects, issues arise that were not in the original plans and those are being addressed. We have refurbished and cleaned the sconces on the side aisles and the lamps in the vestibule. The new lighting which shines on the ceiling has also been installed. With just these adjustments, there is greater light in the Church. The newly installed lightening revealed the need to clean the beams which is in progress. It is also revealed a large spot on the arch leading into the sanctuary. There will be attempt to repair it, but we might need to postpone this project because of tuck-pointing that needs to be done to the Church and rectory. Thank you to everyone for their patience, especially with the scaffolding. Please continue to pray for the success of this project and the future projects the Oratory will need to undertake in order to care for our beautiful Church.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

The Oratory has the happy problem of more faithful than available parking spaces. It is appreciated that for the 8:00 am and 10:00 am Holy Masses finding a spot can be difficult. Please, however, only park in designated areas. Regarding the middle parking lot between the Church and the school building: Park only in those spots that have a parking curb in front of them. DO NOT park in front of the garage, DO NOT park in the spots on the lot east of the garage which are all reserved spots. DO NOT park near the trashcans. Everyone's attention to this is greatly appreciated.

PRO-LIFE UPDATES:

Missouri Right to Life: Update on Pro-Abortion Initiative – Signatures to put a right to unlimited abortion in our State Constitution were turned into the Secretary of State on May 3rd. While they gathered more than twice what was required in raw numbers, they were also required to get specific amounts in each Congressional District based on the votes in the last gubernatorial election. They were also required to gain legible signatures from only Missouri registered voters and only from the county of the petition they were signing. We are awaiting validation of those signatures from the Secretary of State at this time. Please offer prayers and fasting that there aren't enough signatures to put this on the November 2024 ballot.

CHANT CAMP

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish (in Saint Charles, Missouri) is hosting a weeklong Chant Camp for elementary and high school students. We are pleased to have the instruction of Mr. Jeffrey Wisniewski, Director of Sacred Music at Kenrick-Glennon Seminary, and his wife Wendy. The camp will run from 8 – 12 July, with a cost of $60 per student (family discount available). Please find more information at ChantCampSTL.com.

FROM THE WELLSPRING OF TRADITION ... On 2nd and 3rd Orations at Holy Mass

The question is often asked about the 2nd and 3rd collects/orations prayed at Holy Mass. Some of these prayers are required according to the rubrics and some are allowed at the discretion of the priest. Below are excerpts from an article by Dr. Peter Kwasniewski entitled “In Defense of Multiple Orations” from New Liturgical Movement (February 08, 202). The full article can be accessed here: <https://www.newliturgicalmovement.org/2021/02/in-defense-of-multiple-orations.html>

In each Mass, there are three very important prayers familiarly grouped as the “orations”: the Collect, which comes near the beginning; the Secret, said silently just before the Preface to the Canon; and the Postcommunion, said after the ablutions. For centuries, it was the custom for priests to say or to sing more than one set of orations at Mass. (This carried over into Lauds and Vespers as well.) The rubrics often told the priest which additional prayers to use. For example, in Advent, from the first Sunday, the pre-1956 Missal prescribes the addition of a second collect of the Blessed Virgin Mary and a third collect for either the Church or for the Pope, although if there are saints to be commemorated, their prayers would be used instead. On Sundays, too, saints would be commemorated instead of simply ignored.

Prior to 1955, the maximum number of Orations at a low Mass on simple days was five or seven (depending on circumstances).[1] In 1955, this number was reduced to three, and mandatory prayers of the season were abolished. In 1960, the possibility of additional orations was reduced still further, and done away with altogether for most Sundays of the year. All this was done in pursuit of streamlined rational simplicity. The end game was the Novus Ordo, which never has more than one set of orations per Mass. But should we not ask why the custom of praying several orations arose to begin with? What role did it play? What we have lost by its unceremonious abolition?

It seems to me evident that this custom was the way in which the Roman rite expanded the urgency and comprehensiveness of its petitions, making room for the needs of the priest and of the community, for special occasions or seasons or devotions. For example, at the Benedictine monastery in Norcia, a town that was devastated by earthquakes a few years ago, the monks will still at times add the orations against earthquakes at their private Masses. Other priests may pray for the gift of charity, the gift of continence, or the gift of tears. Sometimes a celebrant will add a Collect for his parents, for a friend in need, for peace in time of war, or for the unity of the Church; for people in authority and those under their charge, for those in temptation or tribulation, or for help against persecutors and evildoers; for rain or fine weather, to avert storms, to beg for a good harvest or to beg the lifting of a plague. Thus, a wise and controlled liberty, solely drawing on fully-formed prayers hallowed by centuries of use, allowed for responses to personal and local needs.

These Collects, moreover, expressed and inculcated devotion to Our Lady and the saints, including the patron saint of the church in which the people are gathered for prayer

Quite apart from the obvious value of praying for intentions like these on a regular basis, one cannot fail to note the extraordinary beauty and profound theology of these additional orations, where the lex orandi expresses with incomparable luminosity the lex credendi on the predestination and intercession of the saints.

This practice of multiple collects was the daily liturgical equivalent — on a smaller scale, of course — of the Good Friday intercessions, which, let us recall, are not in the form of a Byzantine litany, much less in the form of the Novus Ordo “prayers of the faithful” or General Intercessions, but rather take the form of a series of petitions announced and then prayed for with Collects. The intercessory element survived in the orationes ad libitum and the orationes imperatae, obviating the need for an artificially constructed “prayer of the faithful” or “general intercessions.” Once again, we see that the Roman tradition in its Tridentine maturity already contained within itself the resources it needed for bringing before God the needs of the celebrant, the local community, the larger world, or certain categories of people. It was already all there. It was only after those resources had been hacked out under Pius XII and John XXIII that the Consilium discovered a “lack” that had to be filled with a pseudo-antiquarian modern invention.

A significant benefit of leaving room for multiple orations is the way in which it permits the temporal and sanctoral cycles to interpenetrate and harmonize as it were effortlessly, without great loss suffered on either level. Sundays may be privileged, but they do not exclude the saints; the saints, too, receive our devotion, but not at the expense of the ferial prayers of Advent and Lent.[2] When the Novus Ordo brutally reduced orations to a single set per Mass across the board, it introduced for the first time an outright opposition between the temporal and sanctoral cycles, an either/or that is highly uncharacteristic of the Catholic both/and. Rather than a great conjunction where two planets draw near in our vision without being in danger of actual collision, the insistence on a single set of orations bespeaks a tunnel-vision incapable of taking in the breadth of revelation, Church history, and the ebb and flow of seasons.

V. Jesus, meek and humble of heart. R. Make our hearts like to Thine.

Let us pray:

Almighty and eternal God, look upon the Heart of Thy most beloved Son and upon the praises and satisfaction which He offers Thee in the name of sinners; and to those who implore Thy mercy, in Thy great goodness, grant forgiveness in the name of the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who livest and reignest with Thee forever and ever. Amen.

FROM THE RECTOR

The Lessons for the celebration of the Fifth Sunday after Pentecost remind us of the importance of the virtue of Christian charity which assists in living in harmony with our brothers and sisters. When we are faithful to keeping the commandments of God we are truly keeping the greatest commandment: to love one another as we have been loved. This love of our neighbor comes from our shared dignity as beloved children of the Father in Christ our Savior. This shared dignity, enflamed by the love of God, has always animated Christian charity. Our service to our neighbors is not for good social order nor to draw attention to ourselves nor to curry favor with others that they might someday take care of us. We share the love given to us; it is that pure and that simple. Be mindful in this coming week of the many opportunities that are given to us to love others as we have been loved and to make that love concrete and manifest in our generous service to our brothers and sisters.
