Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

WEEKLY COLLECTION/TITHING

Asking for money is never easy; I am grateful that the generosity of the faithful of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine, have made it possible for me to limit asking for money. However, as the new budget is submitted to the Archdiocese, it is time again to encourage your continued to support; to ask that everyone prayerfully consider increasing their donation; to ask those who either never give or give little, to consider increasing their donation. I want to specifically encourage those who have not given to share the responsibility of caring for the Oratory along with the other generous members of the community. While the giving of the faithful of the Oratory generally surpasses that of other parish entities, there are still a significant number of registered parishioners who fail to contribute each fiscal year. I realize that the financial situations of each person are unique, and some may not be in a position to give, but I would still ask everyone to contribute something. As I often say when raising money for Covenant Network-Catholic Radio, no amount is too small!

Each year, the needed weekly collection number has increased, and this fiscal year is no different. Beginning 7 July 2024, the targeted weekly collection amount is $17, 869. The increase reflects the continued growth of the Oratory, more personnel for our liturgical celebrations and the on-going maintenance and improvement of the physical plant itself. Regarding the maintenance and improvement of the physical plant, part of the work on the electric system is included in this new budget. It is also anticipated that there will be some work done on the parking area near the garage. There is still work to be accomplished on the outside of the Church and Rectory as well as work to be accomplished on the whole parking lot.

I would ask everyone for their continued generosity as we continue to grow. Our fiscal responsibility indicates to the Archdiocese our ability to sustain ourselves and contributes to our longevity and stability. In advance, thank you so much and may God reward your generosity.

BULLETIN DEADLINE (FRIDAYS @ 10AM)

LPI, the company printing the bulletin, begins its service with this bulletin. The deadline the company has set for our submission of the full bulletin is Tuesdays by 12 Noon each week. Consequently, the new deadline for bulletin submissions from individuals and groups of the Oratory is the prior Friday, 10:00 am.

THE INSTITUTE OF CATHOLIC CULTURE

What is a Church Father? The Institute of Catholic Culture is offering a free on-line course on the Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers of the Church, men including St. Athanasius, St. Jerome, St. Ambrose, St. Augustine, and others. The class will run from August 1 through December 12, 2024 on Thursday evenings from 7 p.m.- 8:15 p.m. There is NO CHARGE for this live webinar, taught by Dr. John Pepino. Registration is open until July 18. For more information or to register, go to <https://instituteofcatholicculture.org/register/patristics-102/> .

GIRLS' GUILD: ICE CREAM SALE

The Our Lady of Walsingham Girls' Guild will be selling frozen treats in the Oratory piazza (white tent area) following the 10 a.m. Mass on Sunday, 21 July. All proceeds will go toward the purchases of Girls' Guild supplies. May God bless you for your support.

ELECTRIC UPDATE

Work on the electrical system of the Church continues and it is anticipated (hoped) that work will be completely finished by the end of July 2024. In order to accomplish this, power to the Church will need to be disconnected for a week so that the outside electric work can be accomplished. Because this involves Ameren and they make the schedule as to when the power will be cut off, we are currently being told the week of 8 July 2024. Concretely, NO liturgical services will happen at all that week. As more information is received, we will continue to make it available to everyone. Please also check the website calendar as well as emails that come from the Oratory. Please continue to pray for the success of this project and the future projects the Oratory will need to undertake in order to care for our beautiful Church.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

The Oratory has the happy problem of more faithful than available parking spaces. It is appreciated that for the 8:00 am and 10:00 am Holy Masses finding a spot can be difficult. Please, however, only park in designated areas. Regarding the middle parking lot between the Church and the school building: Park only in those spots that have a parking curb in front of them. DO NOT park in front of the garage, DO NOT park in the spots on the lot east of the garage which are all reserved spots. DO NOT park near the trashcans. Everyone’s attention to this is greatly appreciated.

PRO-LIFE UPDATES:

Missouri Right to Life: Update on Pro-Abortion Initiative – Signatures to put a right to unlimited abortion in our State Constitution were turned into the Secretary of State on May 3rd. While they gathered more than twice what was required in raw numbers, they were also required to get specific amounts in each Congressional District based on the votes in the last gubernatorial election. They were also required to gain legible signatures from only Missouri registered voters and only from the county of the petition they were signing. We are awaiting validation of those signatures from the Secretary of State at this time. Please offer prayers and fasting that there aren’t enough signatures to put this on the November 2024 ballot.

CHANT CAMP

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish (in Saint Charles, Missouri) is hosting a weeklong Chant Camp for elementary and high school students. The camp will run from 8 – 12 July, with a cost of $60 per student (family discount available). Please find more information at ChantCampSTL.com.

FROM THE WELLSPRING OF TRADITION ... ON PRAYING THE PSALMS IN MASS AND DIVINE OFFICE

You may be keenly aware already that the prayers of Holy Mass are saturated with the Psalms, and that the Mass propers are frequently quotes from the Psalms. If you have prayed any of the divine office, you have no doubt noticed that the heart of the office is praying the Psalms. In the older form of the office, the psalms are prayed through in their entirety in a single week.

You have also, no doubt, noticed that some of the Psalms make for difficult prayer. While some are celebratory and thankful, others are despondent or even angry. Because of this, some people have the mistaken idea that the Psalms are not all fruitful for meditation, or that some parts of the Psalms are no longer fitting with a Catholic outlook on prayer and morality. I wouldn't blame anyone for being hesitant to pray the "difficult" Psalms, after all it can be a struggle to see how it's spiritually beneficial to do so. But the Church, in her wisdom, has from time immemorial held onto these prayers and used them in her liturgy. She recognizes, 1) that the Word of God is not ours to edit, and 2) that if we do not pray the difficult parts of the scriptures, then we are deprived (as Dr. Peter Kwasniewski says) of the "opportunity to wrestle with the Word of God, like Jacob with the angel."

In learning how and why we pray the full range of the Psalms, there is no better teacher than St. Ambrose. This is what he says:

"In the book of Psalms there is profit for all, with healing power for our salvation. There is instruction from history, teaching from the law, prediction from prophecy, chastisement from denunciation, persuasion from oral preaching. All who read it may find the cure for their own individual failings. All with eyes to see can discover in it a complete gymnasium for the soul, a stadium for all the virtues, equipped for every kind of exercise; it is for each to choose the kind he judges best to help him gain the prize..."

A Psalm is a blessing on the lips of the people a hymn in praise of God... It is a source of security at night, a lesson in wisdom by day. It is a shield when we are afraid, a celebration of holiness, a vision of serenity, a promise of peace and harmony. a confession of faith in song. It soothes the temper, distracts from care, lightens the burden of sorrow.

In a psalm instruction vies with beauty...what experience is not covered by a reading of the psalms?"

St. Ambrose goes on to make the most important point of all, one which applies to the whole of the Old Testament, which is that the Old Testament, in its entirety, speaks of Christ. He writes:

"What I am to say of the grace of prophecy? We see that what others hinted at in riddles was promised openly and clearly to the psalmist alone: the Lord Jesus was to be born of his seed, according to the word of the Lord, I will place upon your throne one who is the fruit of your flesh.

In the Psalms, then, not only is Jesus born for us, he also undergoes his saving passion in his body, he lies in death, he rises again, he ascends into heaven, he sits at the right and of the Father."

Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world,
Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world,
Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world,

Spare us, O Lord.
Graciously hear us, O Lord.
Have mercy on us, O Lord.

You have redeemed us, O Lord, in your Blood.

And made us, for our God, a kingdom.

Let us pray: Almighty and eternal God, you have appointed your only-begotten Son the Redeemer of the world, and willed to be appeased by his Blood. Grant we beg of you, that we may worthily adore this price of our salvation, and through its power be safeguarded from the evils of the present life, so that we may rejoice in its fruits forever in heaven. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

FROM THE RECTOR

The Lessons for the Sixth Sunday after Pentecost encourage reflection on the sacraments of baptism and Holy Eucharist. The sacramental life of the Church, especially these two great sacraments, provides us the means by which we not only receive sanctifying grace from God but also through that grace we are able to render worthy praise and adoration to Him. As Paul reminds the Romans, baptism is the means by which we are able to fully share in the Paschal Mystery of our Savior. To die with Christ in baptism is also to live with Him and the restored, reborn life He gained for us on the Cross. Of course, baptism and confirmation are the proper preparation for the reception of the Most Holy Eucharist. The Lord gives us Himself in the Eucharist so that we will have constant contact with the powerful effects of the Cross. We should never take for granted the gifts given to us in our Catholic faith through the sacraments; so too, we should guard against underestimating the power of God’s grace given through baptism and the Eucharist. Our hope for the world, our Church and ourselves is founded on these manifestations of God’s love for us. Let us strive to live this week alive in Christ Jesus our Lord!
