

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS
GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislainmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

Thirteenth Sunday after Pentecost

18 August 2024

FESTIVAL OF SAINT LOUIS: 23-25 August 2024

The Festival of St. Louis is upon us. I would encourage everyone to participate in as much as their schedules will allow. A Rosary Novena at the statue began yesterday on 17 August and continues as a lead up to the feast day itself on Sunday, 25 August 2024. There are many other prayers and events that make up the festival. I especially recommend the procession to the Apotheosis of St. Louis in Forest Park which will take place on Sunday the 25th. This is a remarkably beautiful experience, and your prayerful participation will allow us to celebrate well the patron of our archdiocese. Please see festivalofsaintlouis.com for all of the details.

ORATORY KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS: BOURBON FUNDRAISER

Please purchase a bottle of bourbon to support the Knights of Columbus at the Oratory. With your $100 donation, you receive a special edition single barrel bottle of bourbon from Nobleton's Distillery in Union, MO and a chance to become one of 10 raffle winners that will pick the barrel at the Distillery on October 5th. Each bottle will have a custom Oratory Knights of Columbus label. Fundraising has enabled the Oratory Knights of Columbus Council to purchase an AED defibrillator for the Oratory, to fund benches and the ramada on the "piazza" and has provided water, shuttles, and portable restrooms for the Feast of St. Louis. The Knights provide ushers for Masses, sponsor our barbeques and help set up our tents and several other events like the Easter Egg Hunt and Easter Vigil Party/Bounce House. Please help us raise funds to continue this strong support for the Oratory. Please purchase your bourbon at the following website <https://www.nobletons.com/stgregandstaugustinepick> and enter the passcode "SGSAPICK". Please select "Distillery Pickup" and bottles will be brought to you for pickup at the Oratory in late October. Thank you for your generosity and please feel free to share this information. For questions or alternate arrangements, please contact Jay Petrick at: jayspetrick@gmail.com.

NEW HOLY MASS SCHEDULE

Beginning on Monday, 19 August 2024, Holy Masses will be celebrated daily (Monday through Friday) at 6:30 am and at 12:15 pm. Confessions will remain at 11 am. This change means that the Tuesday and Thursday 7:00 am Holy Mass along with the Wednesday evening at 6:30 pm Holy Mass will NO longer be celebrated. On Wednesdays, we will continue to have Holy Hour at 5:00 pm with Confessions, and Benediction at 6:15 pm. It is anticipated that the early weekday Holy Mass will better accommodate the schedules of those going into work and more of the faithful will be able to participate in daily Holy Mass. So too, the new schedule will provide greater consistency to the schedule. Change is never easy and I appreciate that not everyone will welcome these changes. Please be patient, communicate any concerns to me, and most importantly continue to pray for the health and well-being of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine.

WEEKLY COLLECTION/TITHING

Asking for money is never easy; I am grateful that the generosity of the faithful of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine, have made it possible for me to limit asking for money. However, as the new budget is submitted to the Archdiocese, it is time again to encourage your continued to support; to ask that everyone prayerfully consider increasing their donation; to ask those who either never give or give little, to consider increasing their donation. I want to specifically encourage those who have not given to share the responsibility of caring for the Oratory along with the other generous members of the community. While the giving of the faithful of the Oratory generally surpasses that of other parish entities, there are still a significant number of registered parishioners who fail to contribute each fiscal year. I realize that the financial situations of each person are unique, and some may not be in a position to give, but I would still ask everyone to contribute something. As I often say when raising money for Covenant Network-Catholic Radio, no amount is too small!

Each year, the needed weekly collection number has increased, and this fiscal year is no different. Beginning 7 July 2024, the targeted weekly collection amount is $17, 869. The increase reflects the continued growth of the Oratory, more personnel for our liturgical celebrations and the on-going maintenance and improvement of the physical plant itself. Regarding the maintenance and improvement of the physical plant, part of the work on the electric system is included in this new budget. It is also anticipated that there will be some work done on the parking area near the garage. There is still work to be accomplished on the outside of the Church and Rectory as well as work to be accomplished on the whole parking lot.

I would ask everyone for their continued generosity as we continue to grow. Our fiscal responsibility indicates to the Archdiocese our ability to sustain ourselves and contributes to our longevity and stability. In advance, thank you so much and may God reward your generosity.

ELECTRIC UPDATE

The work in the Church is now complete. There continue to be a few areas of concern that are being addressed over the next several weeks. I appreciate everyone’s patience during this process which has resulted in better lighting for our beautiful Church.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

The Oratory has the happy problem of more faithful than available parking spaces. It is appreciated that for the 8:00 am and 10:00 am Holy Masses finding a spot can be difficult. Please, however, only park in designated areas. Regarding the middle parking lot between the Church and the school building: Park only in those spots that have a parking curb in front of them. DO NOT park in front of the garage, DO NOT park in the spots on the lot east of the garage which are all reserved spots. DO NOT park near the trashcans. Everyone’s attention to this is greatly appreciated.

PRO-LIFE UPDATES:

Missouri Right to Life: Update on Pro-Abortion Initiative – Signatures to put a right to unlimited abortion in our State Constitution were turned into the Secretary of State on May 3rd. While they gathered more than twice what was required in raw numbers, they were also required to get specific amounts in each Congressional District based on the votes in the last gubernatorial election. They were also required to gain legible signatures from only Missouri registered voters and only from the county of the petition they were signing. We are awaiting validation of those signatures from the Secretary of State at this time. Please offer prayers and fasting that there aren’t enough signatures to put this on the November 2024 ballot.

FROM THE WELLSPRING OF TRADITION ... ABOUT THE SIGN OF PEACE

The Pax, or kiss of peace, is an ancient rite. It’s so old, points out theologian Joseph Shaw, that the Irish word for “kiss,” póg, actually derives from the Latin “pax” thanks to this ceremony. In the Roman Rite, the sign of peace historically has been a bit confusing because it has moved between two different places during Holy Mass. In France, it used to take place before the Offertory. In Africa and Rome, it took place before Holy Communion and after the Pater Noster. The Church’s current rite follows the practice of Rome, partly because this symbolic placement has a great effect on the meaning of that part of the Mass.

Pope Innocent III teaches that the Pax is a “seal” of what has gone before, reminding us of what we have just prayed in the Pater Noster; “And forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors.” In some way, our peace is directly related to our willingness to forgive those who have harmed us. When we receive the sign of peace, we must also give it.

In addition, with the consecrated Host present upon the altar during the Pax ceremony, it gains another kind of theological significance. Before starting the exchange with the deacon, the priest kisses the altar next to the consecrated Host. The Pax, then, is the peace of Christ really and truly present in the consecrated Host and the peace arises not from our own feelings or efforts but, rather, directly from the altar and the sacrifice of Our Lord.

The position of the Pax after the fraction of the Host and before its subsequent mingling into the chalice reinforces this understanding that the peace of Christ is a direct result of his death for our sins. In the scriptures, it is the Risen Lord who offers the peace to his disciples in the Upper Room. It is only after his death (represented by the fraction) that the peace of the resurrection (the mingling of the host and precious blood) is achieved.

Looked at in this context, the Pax is not so much an opportunity to make friends, shake hands, or chat as it is a sacred ritual blessing. As a blessing, it matters less if the faithful take part directly or physically in the ceremony because the blessing is passed on in the typical manner of all blessings, which is to say, from the altar. From Christ to his people. This peace is hard-won but it is very much for you.

LITANY TO THE IMMACULATE HEART

Lord, have mercy on us.
 Christ, have mercy on us.
 Lord, have mercy on us.
 Christ, hear us.

Lord, have mercy on us.
 Christ, have mercy on us.
 Lord, have mercy on us.
 Christ, graciously hear us.

God the Father of Heaven,
 God the Son, Redeemer of the world,
 God the Holy Ghost,
 Holy Trinity, One God,

Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.
 Have mercy on us.

Heart of Mary,
 Heart of Mary, like unto the Heart of God,
 Heart of Mary, united to the Heart of Jesus,
 Heart of Mary, instrument of the Holy Ghost,
 Heart of Mary, sanctuary of the Divine Trinity,
 Heart of Mary, tabernacle of God Incarnate,
 Heart of Mary, immaculate from thy creation,
 Heart of Mary, full of grace,
 Heart of Mary, blessed among all hearts,
 Heart of Mary, throne of glory,
 Heart of Mary, most humble,
 Heart of Mary, holocaust of Divine Love,
 Heart of Mary, fastened to the Cross with Jesus Crucified,
 Heart of Mary, comfort of the afflicted,
 Heart of Mary, refuge of sinners,
 Heart of Mary, hope of the agonizing,
 Heart of Mary, seat of mercy,

Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.
 Pray for us.

Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,
 Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,
 Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,

Spare us, O Lord.
 Graciously hear us, O Lord.
 Have mercy on us.

V. Immaculate Mary, meek and humble of heart,
 R. Make our hearts like unto the Heart of Jesus.

Let Us Pray:

O most merciful God, Who, for the salvation of sinners and the refuge of the miserable, wast pleased that the Most Pure Heart of Mary should be most like in charity and pity to the Divine Heart of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, grant that we, who commemorate this sweet and loving Heart, by the merits and intercession of the same Blessed Virgin, may merit to be found like unto the Heart of Jesus, through the same Christ Our Lord.

R. Amen.

(This litany was composed by John Henry (Cardinal) Newman shortly after he converted to Catholicism in 1845. Let us pray this with reverence and recall the many blessings that have flowed through Mary from Jesus to us.)

FROM THE RECTOR

The capacity of the human person to be self-directed and willful is overwhelming. We might want to believe in our ability to give ourselves completely over to God; however, the reality and proliferation of sin make very clear the capacity of the human person for continued willfulness and confidence in his own abilities. As Catholics, one of the hallmarks of our growth in the spiritual life is a distrust of self, placing our complete confidence and trust in the Lord and His power to care for us and to save us. The more we allow grace to mold us into trustful creatures the more we also grow in the virtue of gratitude. Like the lepers in our Gospel today, we approach the Lord and beg for His mercy and the healing that always accompanies that mercy. Of course, the Lord cares for our bodies and physical well-being according to His Divine Providence. More importantly, He cares for our souls and provides us immediate remedy to the devastating impact of our sins. However, more often than not, we behave like the nine lepers, rejoicing in God’s blessings but fail to give Him praise and thanksgiving. Today, as we yet again approach the altar of sacrifice, let us strive to first rely completely upon the Lord and then recognizing His blessings, let us always return to Him and give Him thanks.
