

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS
GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislainmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FESTIVAL OF SAINT LOUIS: 23-25 August 2024

The Festival of St. Louis is upon us. I would encourage everyone to participate in as much as their schedules will allow. A Rosary Novena at the statue began on 17 August and continues as a lead up to the feast day itself on Sunday, 25 August 2024. There are many other prayers and events that make up the festival. I especially recommend the procession to the Apotheosis of St. Louis in Forest Park which will take place on Sunday the 25th. This is a remarkably beautiful experience, and your prayerful participation will allow us to celebrate well the patron of our archdiocese. Please see festivalofsaintlouis.com for all of the details.

ORATORY KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS: BOURBON FUNDRAISER

Please purchase a bottle of bourbon to support the Knights of Columbus at the Oratory. With your $100 donation, you receive a special edition single barrel bottle of bourbon from Nobleton's Distillery in Union, MO and a chance to become one of 10 raffle winners that will pick the barrel at the Distillery on October 5th. Each bottle will have a custom Oratory Knights of Columbus label. Fundraising has enabled the Oratory Knights of Columbus Council to purchase an AED defibrillator for the Oratory, to fund benches and the ramada on the "piazza" and has provided water, shuttles, and portable restrooms for the Feast of St. Louis. The Knights provide ushers for Masses, sponsor our barbeques and help set up our tents and several other events like the Easter Egg Hunt and Easter Vigil Party/Bounce House. Please help us raise funds to continue this strong support for the Oratory. Please purchase your bourbon at the following website <https://www.nobletons.com/stgregandstaugustinepick> and enter the passcode "SGSAPICK". Please select "Distillery Pickup" and bottles will be brought to you for pickup at the Oratory in late October. Thank you for your generosity and please feel free to share this information. For questions or alternate arrangements, please contact Jay Petrick at: jayspetrick@gmail.com.

NEW HOLY MASS SCHEDULE

Holy Masses will be celebrated daily (Monday through Friday) at 6:30 am and at 12:15 pm. Confessions will remain at 11 am. This change means that the Tuesday and Thursday 7:00 am Holy Mass along with the Wednesday evening at 6:30 pm Holy Mass will NO longer be celebrated. On Wednesdays, we will continue to have Holy Hour at 5:00 pm with Confessions, and Benediction at 6:15 pm. First Friday is at 6:30 pm with Confessions from 5:00 pm until 6:00 pm. It is anticipated that the early weekday Holy Mass will better accommodate the schedules of those going into work and more of the faithful will be able to participate in daily Holy Mass. So too, the new schedule will provide greater consistency to the schedule. Change is never easy and I appreciate that not everyone will welcome these changes. Please be patient, communicate any concerns to me, and most importantly continue to pray for the health and well-being of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine.

WEEKLY COLLECTION/TITHING

Asking for money is never easy; I am grateful that the generosity of the faithful of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine, have made it possible for me to limit asking for money. However, as the new budget is submitted to the Archdiocese, it is time again to encourage your continued to support; to ask that everyone prayerfully consider increasing their donation; to ask those who either never give or give little, to consider increasing their donation. I want to specifically encourage those who have not given to share the responsibility of caring for the Oratory along with the other generous members of the community. While the giving of the faithful of the Oratory generally surpasses that of other parish entities, there are still a significant number of registered parishioners who fail to contribute each fiscal year. I realize that the financial situations of each person are unique, and some may not be in a position to give, but I would still ask everyone to contribute something. As I often say when raising money for Covenant Network-Catholic Radio, no amount is too small!

Each year, the needed weekly collection number has increased, and this fiscal year is no different. Beginning 7 July 2024, the targeted weekly collection amount is $17, 869. The increase reflects the continued growth of the Oratory, more personnel for our liturgical celebrations and the on-going maintenance and improvement of the physical plant itself. Regarding the maintenance and improvement of the physical plant, part of the work on the electric system is included in this new budget. It is also anticipated that there will be some work done on the parking area near the garage. There is still work to be accomplished on the outside of the Church and Rectory as well as work to be accomplished on the whole parking lot.

I would ask everyone for their continued generosity as we continue to grow. Our fiscal responsibility indicates to the Archdiocese our ability to sustain ourselves and contributes to our longevity and stability. In advance, thank you so much and may God reward your generosity.

ELECTRIC UPDATE

The work in the Church is now complete. There continue to be a few areas of concern that are being addressed over the next several weeks. I appreciate everyone’s patience during this process which has resulted in better lighting for our beautiful Church.

PARKING ON CAMPUS

The Oratory has the happy problem of more faithful than available parking spaces. It is appreciated that for the 8:00 am and 10:00 am Holy Masses finding a spot can be difficult. Please, however, only park in designated areas. Regarding the middle parking lot between the Church and the school building: Park only in those spots that have a parking curb in front of them. DO NOT park in front of the garage, DO NOT park in the spots on the lot east of the garage which are all reserved spots. DO NOT park near the trashcans. Everyone’s attention to this is greatly appreciated.

PRO-LIFE UPDATES:

Missouri Right to Life: Update on Pro-Abortion Initiative – Signatures to put a right to unlimited abortion in our State Constitution were turned into the Secretary of State on May 3rd. While they gathered more than twice what was required in raw numbers, they were also required to get specific amounts in each Congressional District based on the votes in the last gubernatorial election. They were also required to gain legible signatures from only Missouri registered voters and only from the county of the petition they were signing. We are awaiting validation of those signatures from the Secretary of State at this time. Please offer prayers and fasting that there aren’t enough signatures to put this on the November 2024 ballot.

BULLETIN DEADLINE (FRIDAYS @ 10AM)

FROM THE WELLSPRING OF TRADITION: SPECIAL TEXTS for the FEAST of SAINT LOUIS

The texts and chants of the liturgies for August 24 and 25 are taken from Latin manuscript BNF No. 911 in the French National Library. The manuscript was probably commissioned by Saint Louis’s grandson, Philip IV (‘the Fair’), and compiled by a well-known liturgist, Pierre de la Croix, shortly after Louis’s canonization in Orvieto on 11 August 1297 by Boniface VIII. We celebrate liturgies on August 24 and 25 from this special manuscript as another way to allow Catholic culture to flower again and allow our heritage to shine in an ever ancient, ever new way. One of the joys of being in the Archdiocese of Saint Louis is that our French, Spanish, and German heritage mean that we can freely draw on many venerable traditions. Another reason for using this special office is that it highlights more particular events from Saint Louis’s life than the common Mass for confessors. In this instance, these texts highlight specific elements of Saint Louis’s character: his devotion to justice for all in the royal courts, his wise use of earthly power to direct his subjects to heaven as their goal, his devotion to helping the poor, his sacrifice of his own comfort in defense of the Holy Land, his notion of kingship as service, and his extraordinary humility. He is seen as a new David in kingly service to God’s people, a new Solomon in his wise judgements, a new Ezechiel in his zeal for truth, a new Josiah in his devotion to the Law. And that he found favor in God’s sight is clearly evidenced by the many miracles that occurred after his death. You can see these attributes portrayed in the splendid mosaics that outline his life in the vestibule of our own Cathedral Basilica.

Please note: this liturgical ‘restoration’ includes both Holy Mass and the Divine Office. That is extremely important, because it reflects the essential integrity of the Roman rite, something all but lost over the course of the 20th century. Few Catholics today have a grasp of the intrinsic unity of Mass and Divine Office. Psalmody and sacrifice have an unbreakable bond since the days of the Second Temple, on which all Catholic liturgy is based. Since Vatican II, despite the Council Fathers’ strongly worded resolution to restore the Divine Office to the prominent position it held prior to its steep decline over the course of the 20th century, few Catholics know any form of liturgy apart from the Mass. The reality that the Church even has liturgical forms other than the Mass is completely foreign. And that is a tragedy, because it is simply not possible to have a comprehensive understanding of the Mass without the context of the Divine Office. A goal of restoring what was once common practice in parishes is why the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine strives to make regularly scheduled public celebrations of the Divine Office available to all. We are very blessed to do this and are working to be able to fund an expansion of that offering in future years.

Reviving these older formularies for celebration is a complex business that requires a lot of work behind the scenes. Manuscripts have to be identified and researched, then transcribed, translated, and put into context. Texts and chants were often spread out over different manuscripts to accommodate the needs of different roles in choir, so multiple manuscripts are involved. We are very grateful to all of the talented scholars that have assisted in making these liturgical treasures available to us, in honor of Saint Louis and our Heavenly Father. Laus Deo semper!

Spare us, O Lord.
 Graciously hear us, O Lord.
 Have mercy on us.

V. Immaculate Mary, meek and humble of heart,
 R. Make our hearts like unto the Heart of Jesus.

Let Us Pray:

O most merciful God, Who, for the salvation of sinners and the refuge of the miserable, wast pleased that the Most Pure Heart of Mary should be most like in charity and pity to the Divine Heart of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, grant that we, who commemorate this sweet and loving Heart, by the merits and intercession of the same Blessed Virgin, may merit to be found like unto the Heart of Jesus, through the same Christ Our Lord.

R. Amen.

(This litany was composed by John Henry (Cardinal) Newman shortly after he converted to Catholicism in 1845. Let us pray this with reverence and recall the many blessings that have flowed through Mary from Jesus to us.)

FROM THE RECTOR

The celebration today of our patron, Saint Louis, King of France vividly reminds us of the desperate need for Christian leadership. The current political climate is marred by division, violence, and the naked pursuit of power. Regardless of the party to which one belongs, leadership is sorely lacking that is rooted in truth, goodness, and sacrificial service. Since his reign, Saint Louis has been a model for Catholic leadership, executing his office in the manner of our Lord who came to serve and not to be served. Saint Louis was acutely aware that the foundation of his powers came not from him or the people, but from God alone. For his part, the life of Saint Louis was one of service and sacrifice in the name of our Savior. It is almost impossible to imagine that the current cultural ethos is capable of fostering Christian leadership. This becomes even more apparent when an assessment is made of the leadership of the Church Herself. The framework of so many of those charged with governance is not the tenants of the true faith, but the expedient use of power. Saint Louis remains a profound example of authentic governance. Let us pray, through his intercession, that all leaders – religious and secular – may rely only upon the wisdom of God in their service of their neighbor and fellowman.
