

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS
GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislainmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

The feast of the Holy Name of Jesus provides us with the opportunity to celebrate the power of the Name of the Lord. Not only does God become man dwelling among His people to bring about salvation, healing and peace but also, He allows us to be brought into intimate relationship with Him, calling Him by name and enjoying a familiarity with God that only He could allow. In other relationships this familiarity could lead to a devaluing of the relationship creating a false sense of equality among those in the relationship; however, to speak and to know the Name of Jesus is to all the more know of God’s grandeur and power, His might and majesty precisely because He deigns to let us call Him by name. Of course, as with all aspects of the Incarnation, through knowledge of the Name of Jesus we are then able to call God our Father. This cannot happen unless we know Christ and call upon His name for our salvation and peace. As we continue to contemplate the mystery of the Incarnation, let us rejoice and marvel at what God has done for us by remaining with and allowing us to call Him by His Holy Name.

A MESSAGE FROM MSGR. MORRIS

I want to take this opportunity to let the faithful of the Oratory know of some health issues I have. In the early Fall of 2024, I was diagnosed with prostate cancer. It has been caught early enough that no symptoms were present, but blood work revealed the cancer. I have undergone a series of tests to determine the best course moving forward and that decision involves surgery. The surgery is scheduled for 30 January 2025 and will require an overnight stay. I will then spend the next several weeks in recovery. I am hoping that I will be recovered well enough by Ash Wednesday which is 5 March 2025. I am grateful to both Fr. Rennie and Fr. Linus who will maintain the liturgical schedule for the Oratory as I will be unable to leave the rectory during my convalescence. The doctors consulted are confident of a full recovery and I am at peace with all that has transpired. There is no cause for anxiety or worry as we trust in the Lord's providence. Please pray for me and for those doctors and nurses involved in my surgery. Know that during my recovery you will remain in my daily prayers. Let us always have recourse to Our Lady of Walsingham and our patrons, Ss. Gregory and Augustine!

EPIPHANY 2025

The Vigil of Epiphany is commemorated this year as we celebrate the Holy Name of Jesus on Sunday, 5 January 2025. Water and salt will be blessed at the conclusion of Holy Mass on Saturday, 4 January 2025. To better facilitate the blessing of Epiphany water, no outside containers of water will be allowed. You are allowed to bring your own salt. Please be sure to drop it off prior to Holy Mass and pick it up at the conclusion of the blessing. Enough water and salt will be blessed and made available to the faithful on Sunday and on Epiphany Day itself and for as long as the water remains. The Feast of the Epiphany (6 January 2025) will follow the normal daily schedule: Holy Masses @ 6:30 am and 12:15 pm with confessions @ 11:00 am.

2025 CALENDARS

The calendars for 2025 for the Oratory Community have arrived. This year's calendar comes from the Transalpine Redemptorists, a community of traditional monks rooted in the Redemptorists charism who practice both the contemplative and active life. Their motherhouse is in Scotland and they have recently founded a house in Montana.

You are kindly asked to initially take one calendar per household. Once everyone has had a chance to pick up a calendar, there should be more available in late January for those who need another one. Thank you!

LOST and FOUND

There are quite a few missals in the lost and found, as well as other items, and more have been added in the past few weeks. Please, in your charity, check the lost and found for any of your belongings as we will empty it (missals and all) on Monday, 13 January.

GIVING TUESDAY 2024 – THANK YOU!

Our Giving Tuesday Campaign concluded with a total of $41,310. This exceeds our goal of $40k! Thank you to our 84 generous donors! Be sure to stop by the Nativity scene in the Marian transept this Christmas to see some of the fruits of your donations: several new figures added to the set and a custom-build stable. Also keep an eye out for new vestments at Solemn Masses later this year and improvements to the baptistry. All made possible by the great generosity of our donors. May God reward you.

DEVOTION TO THE HOLY FACE OF JESUS - BOOKS

Please accept a copy of "The Secret of the Holy Face" by Fr. Lawrence Carney as a donation to all parishioners available in the vestibule of the Church today. Given the course of events occurring in our country and within the Church, especially with regard to the current growth of Communism, it is recommended that Catholics understand and pray the Holy Face Devotion. This powerful devotion was given to mankind by our Lord and evolved as a weapon to combat the evils of Communism when it first appeared. Though the devotion became less popular, primarily after Vatican II, many Catholics now believe there is an urgent and renewed need for this prayerful exercise given its promises.

Numerous miracles are associated with this devotion which has the full approval of the Catholic Church. In 1843 the Lord spoke these words Sr. Marie de Saint Pierre, a Carmelite nun, in Tours:

"The earth is covered with crimes. The violation of the first three Commandments of God has irritated My Father. The Holy Name of God blasphemed, and the Holy Day of the Lord profaned, filling up the measure of iniquities. These sins have risen into the throne of God and provoked his wrath which will soon burst forth if justice be not appeased. At no time have these crimes reached such a pitch."

In 1845, the Reparative Mystery of the Holy Face was revealed to Sister Saint-Pierre as the Lord stated: "I seek Veronicas to wipe and venerate My Holy Face which has few adorers... and by My Holy Face, you will work many miracles."

The Lord gave Sister Saint-Pierre the Golden Arrow prayer as special reparation for blasphemy. She then prayed the rosary asking Our Lady's intercession in helping her to get the Lord's message to others. Shortly thereafter Mary's apparition at La Salette followed which affirmed the Lord's words to Sister Saint-Pierre, "The Church will be in eclipse."

The revelations to Sister Saint Pierre are also at the foundation of Our Lady's warning at Fatima, regarding the spread of atheistic errors of secular humanism, Socialism, and religious suppression contained in Communism and of revolutionary men.

Please consider studying and praying the Holy Face Devotion for our country and for Holy Mother Church in these challenging times.

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION

EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION OF MOVEABLE FEASTS

Epiphany is the last principal feast before the beginning of the Easter cycle. The Pontificale Romanum (Pars III. De Publicatione festorum Mobilium in Epiphania Domini) provides rubrics, text, and chant for how to announce the date of Easter and of the main movable feasts of the year on this day. This follows a tradition that dates back to the early days of the Church, when calendars were rare. The Patriarch of Alexandria, where the most skilled Christian astronomers lived, had the mission to send the date of the Paschal solemnity to other Eastern Patriarchs and to the Roman Pontif, who then informed the metropolitans of the West.

The Council of Nicaea is said to have formalized the practice, so that everyone everywhere should celebrate it on one and the same day. Although there is no mention of the fixing of the date of Easter in the canons of the Council of Nicaea which have been preserved, we know that the issue was discussed and decided by the council from various documents published afterwards. It soon became a practice for bishops to publish annually, on 6 January, an Epistola festalis, a pastoral letter in which were announced the dates of Easter and movable feasts of the current year.

Many Fathers of the early Church speak of the announcement of the date of Easter on the feast of the Epiphany. The Fourth Council of Orleans in 541 and that of Auxerre in 578 are good witnesses of this use in Gaul, and broadly, in the West. In the old Parisian Breviary, at the end of the office of a prime, a canon from decisions of the holy councils used to be read on Sundays & holidays. Here's the one for the Epiphany:

The Council, guided by the inspiration of a God full of goodness for men, ruled that the priests will celebrate at the same time the holy Easter, and that every year on the day of Epiphany the people in the church will be informed of this solemn feast... Let the priests before the Epiphany send deputies to the bishop to be informed by him of the beginning of Lent, and to be able to instruct the faithful upon that on the day of Epiphany.

The Parisian and Ambrosian rites have shorter formulae for this announcement. But the Roman rite has a slightly expanded formula, known from its first word as the Noveritis. In addition to the date of Easter are also added those of Septuagesima, Ash Wednesday, Ascension, Pentecost and First Sunday of Advent. The Roman chant uses the same melody as the Exultet of the Easter Vigil, which gives a taste of the Easter joy to the publication of the date of Easter. This same idea is developed by Dom Prosper Guéranger in his great commentary, The Liturgical Year.

This custom, which dates from the earliest ages of the Church, shows both the mysterious connection which unites the great Solemnities of the year one with another, and the importance the Faithful ought to attach to the celebration of that which is the greatest of all, and the center of all Religion. After having honored the King of the universe on the Epiphany, we shall have to celebrate him on the day which is now announced to us, as the conqueror of death.

At the Oratory, we will chant this announcement after the Gospel at all Holy Masses on Sunday 5 January, the day before the feast of Epiphany. Here is the text in Latin and English:

Noveritis, fratres carissimi, quod annuente Dei misericordia sicut de Nativitate Domini Nostri Jesu Christi gavisi sumus, ita et de Resurrectione ejusdem Salvatoris nostri gaudium vobis annuntiamus. Dei sexta decima Februarii erit Dominica in Septuagesima. Quina Martii dies Cinerum et initium jejunii sacratissimae Quadragesimae. Vigesima Aprilis sanctum Pascha Domini nostri Jesu Christi cum gaudio celebrabimus. Nona vigesima Maji erit Ascensio Domini nostri Jesu Christi. Die octa Junii Festum Pentecostes. Nona decima ejusdem Festum sacratissimi Corporis Christi. Trigesima Novembris Dominica prima Adventus Domini nostri Jesu Christi, cui est honor et gloria in saecula saeculorum. Amen.	Know, dearest brethren, by the gift of God’s mercy, as we have rejoiced for the birth of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, so also we announce to you joy for the Resurrection of the same Our Savior. On the sixth day of February will be Septuagesima Sunday. On the fifth of March, the day of Ashes, and the beginning of the fast of most holy Lent. On the twentieth of April, we will celebrate with joy the holy Easter of Our Lord, Jesus Christ. On the twenty-ninth of May will be the Ascension of Our Lord, Jesus Christ. On eighth day of June, the feast of Pentecost. On the nineteenth of the same month, the feast of the most holy Body of Christ. On the thirtieth of November, the first Sunday of the Advent of Our Lord, Jesus Christ, to whom are honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.”
