

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS
GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

The world is constantly upon financial and governmental systems to help achieve lasting peace. In our current cultural climate, it is commonly accepted that the greatest obstacle to peace is religion, specifically the Catholic Church. Of course this is not true. In fact, there is no true peace unless it comes from Christ and explicitly involves Christ. So too, the beloved spouse of Christ, Holy Mother the Church, must take an active role in the transformation of society and culture to continue the peace that the Cross has given us. The peace that the Lord offers the disciples in the Gospel today is born from the new life He has gained for us on the cross. This peace, true peace, is not mere resignation or apathy that accepts the status quo as a means to quell discord. The peace that Our Savior brings has been purchased by His broken body and sealed in His Precious Blood. This is why His peace is everlasting and the only source to truly transform society and culture. Even now, wars are waging and the world watches as nations use violence to resolve conflict. Our own country is divided and violent, always on the brink of serious social upheaval and discord. Regardless of where we live, we are impacted by this violence and we pray for an end to violence in the world. As we strive for peace among nations we must also work on the peace of Christ in our own hearts and lives. We must be men and women of authentic peace that comes from faith in the Risen Christ. There can be no doubts about His glorious Resurrection that would impede our trust in the Lord. Through our own lives of faith, clinging to Christ above all things we can be instruments of Christ’s peace to each other.

IN THANKSGIVING

A profound word of gratitude to everyone who assisted in making our celebration of Lent, the Sacred Triduum and Easter Sunday truly beautiful gifts of praise to God. For all those who assisted in veiling our statues and preparing the Altar of Repose; for the musicians, men and women’s scholas and the choir; for the servers, Masters of Ceremony; the Head Sacristan and those who assisted him; the sacred ministers who assisted as deacon and subdeacon; for those who helped clean the Church and the Knights of Columbus for their work as ushers. May God reward your generosity!

FIRST CONFESSION

On Saturday, 12 April 2025, 19 young people of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory & Augustine received their First Confession. I am grateful to their teachers in preparing them well and to Jake and Terri Fowler for their leadership of our CCD Program. Please continue to pray for all our young people enrolled in the CCD program here at the Oratory especially those preparing for Confirmation and First Holy Communion.

SUMMER SCHEDULE

While this is several months away, to allow the faithful of the Oratory to plan accordingly, the Oratory will again implement the summer schedule. Beginning on Tuesday, 1 July 2025 and concluding on Thursday, 14 August 2025 the Oratory will have one daily Holy Mass at 12:15 pm with Confessions at 11:00 am. The Saturday and Sunday schedules will remain the same. The offices hours during this time will be Monday through Thursday from 8:00 am until 2:30 pm. The offices will be closed on Fridays. In order to assist the priests and the staff, please do not anticipate any parish business on Fridays. These scheduling changes allow the priests of the Oratory to take vacation and more importantly to make their canonical retreats. So too, the changed office hours will allow our dedicated staff time for vacation. As we move closer to the month of July, more information will be provided.

THE COMMUNION RAIL

In recent weeks there have been several incidents where the faithful have fallen from the communion rail after receiving Holy Communion. The severity of the injuries has varied, but sadly this has occurred far too often. I would ask everyone to be attentive to the step up AND down at the communion rail. Please be aware of those with any mobility issues and assist them if no ushers are present. If you bring someone new to the Oratory for Holy Mass, please remind them of the step at the communion rail or if you see someone struggling, please assist them. If the community is more cognizant of this at the time of communion it is hoped that the accidents can cease. Please pray for those who have fallen, especially for a swift recovery from their injuries.

EASTER EGG HUNT

Please join us for an Easter Egg Hunt on Low Sunday, 27 April after the 10:00 am Holy Mass. The easter egg hunt will take place on the school playground. There is no admission fee and all ages are welcome.

GIRLS' GUILD SALE OF HAND-PAINTED DECORATIVE EGGS AND BAKED GOODS

The Our Lady of Walsingham Girls' Guild will hold an Easter bake-sale following the 10 am Mass on Sunday, 27 April. In addition to baked goods, the girls will also be selling hand-painted decorative eggs for use as Easter decorations at home (goose, quail, and chicken available). Look for the station between the church and the school or in the St. Joseph Room in the event of rain. All proceeds go to future Girls' Guild activities. Cash and Venmo accepted.

BIRTHRIGHT MOTHER’S DAY CARDS

Birtheright of Hillsboro has provided us with Mother’s Day cards. Please feel free to take as many as you need for the mothers in your life. For more than 40 years, Birtheright of Hillsboro has offered free, confidential help to the mothers in our community. They need funds to continue the work of ministering to pregnant mothers, easing the burdens of those faced with an unexpected pregnancy, pledge funds toward rent and utilities and helping provide the essentials for children under the age of 3. Please consider supporting Birtheright as you honor the special mothers in your life this Mother’s Day. Please also consider donating to their ministry.

WHAT ARE STOLE FEES?

It is customary in the Catholic Church for the provision of the clergy to offer “stole fees,” at baptisms, weddings, funerals, or the blessing of homes. These stipends form a part of the compensation for the clergy. Most priests don’t want to sound greedy or ungrateful, so stole fees are not often mentioned or taught about, but because people are not aware of them, the faithful usually find it helpful to learn that they do exist (and that the priests are grateful for your generosity!).

These fees are not obligatory but are given as a sign of appreciation and support for the clergy's work. The Catholic Church emphasizes that these fees should not be seen as payment for sacraments, which are free gifts of God. The clergy at the Oratory are particularly keen to make clear that no one who asks for a sacrament will ever be denied for lack of a stole fee.

In our archdiocese, there are suggested amounts that people usually give, and that information will be shared with you by the office when the event is scheduled. Thank you!

ORATORY PILGRIMAGE

Throughout history, the Church’s faithful have taken Jubilee years to make pilgrimages to Rome in order to visit the major basilicas, walk through the Holy Doors, and gain the Jubilee Indulgence. Msgr. Morris will be leading a Jubilee Pilgrimage to Rome October 6th-16th, 2025. The fully-guided pilgrimage will include daily Latin Mass, time for prayer, and an itinerary of some of Rome’s greatest sites, as well as a few hidden treasures. There is also a day trip to Monte Cassino. For more information, please see the flyers in the magazine holders at each of the church entryways or email Anna Kalinowski at auxiliatrix@oratorysga.org.

JUBILEE YEAR INFORMATION

The Jubilee Year of 2025, which began on 24 December, 2024 and runs until 6 January 2026, offers the faithful many opportunities to obtain the Jubilee Indulgence. Local designated pilgrimage sites are as follows: The Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis (New Cathedral), The Basilica of St. Louis, King of France (Old Cathedral), Holy Spirit Adoration Sisters (St. Louis), The Carmel of St. Joseph (St. Louis), St. Mary’s of the Barrens National Shrine of the Miraculous Medal (Perryville), Monastery of St. Clare (St. Louis), Passionist Nuns of St. Louis (Ellisville), Immaculate Heart of Mary (New Melle), Immaculate Conception (Union).

For more information about the Jubilee Year and how to receive an indulgence, please see the flyers in the church vestibule or visit: <https://www.archstl.org/2025jubileeyear/>

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION: Low Sunday, Station at St Pancratius

The first Sunday after Easter is a day with many names. Most English speakers know it as ‘Low Sunday.’ While the origin of that term is not certain, most agree that the title refers in some way to the contrast between the heightened celebration of the great feast of Easter with its Octave and a return to a more normal Sunday celebration.

The official liturgical name for this day is Dominica in Albis Depositis. In the ancient rites of the catechumenate, the newly baptized (the neophytes) were vested in white baptismal robes for their Baptism, Confirmation, and first Holy Mass and Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil. They wore these robes through entire week following, and were guests of honor in the church of their baptism, where they attended Holy Mass each morning and attended a special service at the baptismal font in the afternoon. On the Saturday of Easter week they came to their baptismal church for the last time as a special group. After Holy Mass they removed their white garments and placed them in the church's wardrobe as a reminder of their baptismal vows. Hence this Saturday is called Sabbato in albis, or ‘Saturday in white (robes)’ and the following day is Dominica in albis depositis, ‘Sunday on which the white robes have been put away.’ On this Sunday they joined the faithful for Holy Mass without their white garments for the first time as all marched to the final station church of Easter, St. Pancratius, named for a young man who was martyred at age 14 for being baptized.

Yet another name for this day is Pascha clausum or ‘Easter’s end’, referring to the fact that today is actually the Octave Day of Easter. But the use of that particular Latin word to mark the conclusion of the Easter Octave has a deeper meaning. We find clausum in today’s gospel, where it describes the closed doors of the Upper Room where the Risen Lord appeared to the disciples, minus S Thomas, and then appeared again to demolish S Thomas’s doubts and claim his faith in the Risen Lord. In the liturgy, the Octave actually ends with the double Alleluia at the end of None on the Saturday, because we began our celebration on Saturday at the Vigil. On this day we begin the season of Paschaltide.

In many places, it is commonly known as Quasimodo Sunday. Like Gaudete and Laetare Sundays, this name is used because of the opening words of today’s Introit, Quasimodo geniti infantes, (1 Pet 2:2), which refers to the neophytes who have just laid aside their white baptismal robes. A newborn child, with its instinct of self-preservation, desires its mother’s milk. It needs no admonitions. We also, in order to preserve the supernatural life, should have a spontaneous longing for the nourishment of our souls, for truth, and for the Holy Eucharist. Like a mother, the Church cries out to us: Preserve the spirit of the children of God, remain simple, humble, and submissive to Him. Remain rationabiles, mature enough to think clearly, and sine dolo, able to preserve the truth without falsity, and to love without envy. And yes, this is also the reason for the name of Victor Hugo’s famous hero in The Hunchback of Notre Dame, who was discovered as an abandoned baby on this day.

Our Lady of Walsingham, intercede for us who have recourse to thee!
Ss. Gregory and Augustine, pray for us!
