

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS
GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

The Second Sunday after Easter is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday reminding the newly baptized and initiated members of the faith to cling to Christ the Good Shepherd. This also serves as a reminder to all members of the family of God that they are to hold fast to the faith that is rooted in the Cross of Christ. In the Epistle, St. Peter reminds us of the price paid by Christ for our transgressions and the exhortation that the Lord’s sufferings are the example we should follow in our daily lives. The only way for us to carry our daily crosses is to allow the voice of God to lead and guide us. And, in order for us to hear His voice, we must put aside self-directedness, willfulness, and pride. St. Peter: “For you were as sheep going astray; but you are now converted to the shepherd and bishop of your souls.” To grow in humility, the cardinal virtue to deepen our trust in the Lord, requires a willingness to be humiliated. I would encourage the daily praying of the Litany of Humility attributed to and popularized by Cardinal Merry del Val. This great servant of God, Cardinal del Val, was known for his priestly zeal and pastoral charity coupled with a profound love of Christ and Holy Mother the Church. The Cardinal credits his growth in the virtue of humility as key to his ability to better cooperate with the graces of God. It must be for us as well. We must strive to grow in the virtue of humility to allow the other graces of God to flow easily in our lives. Christ is the Good Shepherd who cares deeply for the well-being, both spiritual and physical, of His sheep. For our part, we must rejoice in being members of His flock, docile and obedient to His voice so that we might also respond generously and promptly to His will.

It is providential that this Sunday precedes the opening of the Conclave (Wednesday, 7 May 2025) to elect the new Supreme Pontiff of the Catholic Church. In this time of transition, it is clear that the Church has suffered greatly over the last decade and often times Her struggles came from those charged with shepherding the Church. Each member of the body of Christ must pray fervently for a good shepherd to lead the Catholic Church in these tumultuous times. Of course, the Holy Spirit is intimately involved in the process either guiding the minds of the cardinals to an inspired choice or more importantly always safeguarding the Church when those charged with leadership make bad choices. Waiting for the white smoke to appear affords the opportunity to reflect on the transcendent nature of the Church and the promise of protection given to Her by Christ Himself. Confident in the Father’s Divine Providence, we entrust the cardinals of the Church to the mantle of Our Blessed Mother and pray for them to courageously listen to the Holy Spirit.

IN THANKSGIVING

A profound word of gratitude to everyone who assisted in making our celebration of Lent, the Sacred Triduum and Easter Sunday truly beautiful gifts of praise to God. For all those who assisted in veiling our statues and preparing the Altar of Repose; for the musicians, men and women’s scholas and the choir; for the servers, Masters of Ceremony; the Head Sacristan and those who assisted him; the sacred ministers who assisted as deacon and subdeacon; for those who helped clean the Church and the Knights of Columbus for their work as ushers. May God reward your generosity!

FIRST CONFESSION

On Saturday, 12 April 2025, 19 young people of the Oratory of Ss. Gregory & Augustine received their First Confession. I am grateful to their teachers in preparing them well and to Jake and Terri Fowler for their leadership of our CCD Program. Please continue to pray for all our young people enrolled in the CCD program here at the Oratory especially those preparing for Confirmation and First Holy Communion.

SUMMER SCHEDULE

While this is several months away, to allow the faithful of the Oratory to plan accordingly, the Oratory will again implement the summer schedule. Beginning on Tuesday, 1 July 2025 and concluding on Thursday, 14 August 2025 the Oratory will have one daily Holy Mass at 12:15 pm with Confessions at 11:00 am. The Saturday and Sunday schedules will remain the same. The offices hours during this time will be Monday through Thursday from 8:00 am until 2:30 pm. The offices will be closed on Fridays. In order to assist the priests and the staff, please do not anticipate any parish business on Fridays. These scheduling changes allow the priests of the Oratory to take vacation and more importantly to make their canonical retreats. So too, the changed office hours will allow our dedicated staff time for vacation. As we move closer to the month of July, more information will be provided.

THE COMMUNION RAIL

In recent weeks there have been several incidents where the faithful have fallen from the communion rail after receiving Holy Communion. The severity of the injuries has varied, but sadly this has occurred far too often. I would ask everyone to be attentive to the step up AND down at the communion rail. Please be aware of those with any mobility issues and assist them if no ushers are present. If you bring someone new to the Oratory for Holy Mass, please remind them of the step at the communion rail or if you see someone struggling, please assist them. If the community is more cognizant of this at the time of communion it is hoped that the accidents can cease. Please pray for those who have fallen, especially for a swift recovery from their injuries.

CHANT CAMP

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish (in Saint Charles county) is hosting a weeklong Chant Camp for elementary and high school students. We are pleased to have the instruction of Mr. Jeffrey Wisniewski, Director of Music at Kendrick-Glennon Seminary, and his wife Wendy. The camp will run from 16 – 20 June, with a cost of $60 per student (family discount available). Please find more information and registration at ChantCampSTL.com.

BIRTHRIGHT MOTHER’S DAY CARDS

Birthingright of Hillsboro has provided us with Mother’s Day cards. Please feel free to take as many as you need for the mothers in your life. For more than 40 years, Birthingright of Hillsboro has offered free, confidential help to the mothers in our community. They need funds to continue the work of ministering to pregnant mothers, easing the burdens of those faced with an unexpected pregnancy, pledge funds toward rent and utilities and helping provide the essentials for children under the age of 3. Please consider supporting Birthingright as you honor the special mothers in your life this Mother’s Day. Please also consider donating to their ministry.

WHAT ARE STOLE FEES?

It is customary in the Catholic Church for the provision of the clergy to offer “stole fees,” at baptisms, weddings, funerals, or the blessing of homes. These stipends form a part of the compensation for the clergy. Most priests don’t want to sound greedy or ungrateful, so stole fees are not often mentioned or taught about, but because people are not aware of them, the faithful usually find it helpful to learn that they do exist (and that the priests are grateful for your generosity!).

These fees are not obligatory but are given as a sign of appreciation and support for the clergy’s work. The Catholic Church emphasizes that these fees should not be seen as payment for sacraments, which are free gifts of God. The clergy at the Oratory are particularly keen to make clear that no one who asks for a sacrament will ever be denied for lack of a stole fee.

In our archdiocese, there are suggested amounts that people usually give, and that information will be shared with you by the office when the event is scheduled. Thank you!

ORATORY PILGRIMAGE

Throughout history, the Church’s faithful have taken Jubilee years to make pilgrimages to Rome in order to visit the major basilicas, walk through the Holy Doors, and gain the Jubilee Indulgence. Msgr. Morris will be leading a Jubilee Pilgrimage to Rome October 6th-16th, 2025. The fully-guided pilgrimage will include daily Latin Mass, time for prayer, and an itinerary of some of Rome’s greatest sites, as well as a few hidden treasures. There is also a day trip to Monte Cassino. For more information, please see the flyers in the magazine holders at each of the church entryways or email Anna Kalinowski at auxiliatrix@oratorysga.org.

JUBILEE YEAR INFORMATION

The Jubilee Year of 2025, (24 December, 2024 through 6 January 2026), offers the faithful many opportunities to obtain the Jubilee Indulgence. Local designated pilgrimage sites are as follows: The Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis (New Cathedral), The Basilica of St. Louis, King of France (Old Cathedral), Holy Spirit Adoration Sisters (St. Louis), The Carmel of St. Joseph (St. Louis), St. Mary’s of the Barrens National Shrine of the Miraculous Medal (Perryville), Monastery of St. Clare (St. Louis), Passionist Nuns of St. Louis (Ellisville), Immaculate Heart of Mary (New Melle), Immaculate Conception (Union).

For more information about the Jubilee Year and how to receive an indulgence, please see the flyers in the church vestibule or visit: <https://www.archstl.org/2025jubileeyear/>

POLYHYMNIA CHORAL SUMMER CAMP

Polyhymnia is having a choir camp for children ages 10-17, July 7-11 from 9am-1pm at Little Flower Church (1264 Arch Terrace, Richmond Heights 63117). $40 per singer, discounts for additional siblings. The children will be divided by grade and or skill level. We will have sections of Music History, Group vocal coaching and the choice of individual lessons, group chant and choral practice. Please visit BIT.LY/STLCAMP website (all caps) for more details or contact parishioner Cathy Saccente at catsaccente@gmail.com.

BLESSED ITEMS

If you wish to have items blessed, please drop them off at the rectory (Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm) and include your name and telephone number. Please make sure all items are clearly marked. Once Msgr. Morris or Fr. Rennier have blessed the items Donna Mueller, Administrative Assistant to the Rector, will call you to let you know the items are ready for pick up (from the rectory office, Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm). Please drop off/pick up items at the front door on Dale Avenue, across from the field parking lot.

SAFETY ALERT

PLEASE do NOT allow your children to play on or walk on the metal grates that are in between the rectory and church (near the pergola) and the one that is on the east side of the rectory. THEY ARE NOT SAFE to walk on or play on. We do not want anyone to get hurt. Please be mindful of your children and make sure they are not playing on or around the black metal grates.

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION

THE PAPAL CONCLAVE

A papal conclave is the election process by which a new pope, the visible head of the Catholic Church, is selected.

The pope is the vicar of Christ and successor of St. Peter, the visible leader of the universal Church, against which Our Lord promises the gates of hell will never prevail (Matt. 16:18-19). After a pope dies, a papal conclave commences within three weeks to elect his successor. A conclave is the gathering of the College of Cardinals in which these papal electors choose the next pope.

When a pope dies, there are nine days of mourning, as prescribed in the apostolic constitution that governs the election of a pope, Universi Domini Gregis, which Pope St. John Paul II issued. The Church follows a process established over centuries to elect his successor. The period between two popes is called an interregnum, Latin for “between reigns” of two popes.

A two-thirds majority of cardinal electors is needed to elect a pope, no matter how many ballots are required to complete the conclave voting process. In his 2013 motu proprio Normas Nonnullas, Pope Benedict XVI further decreed that the election of a successor must commence within a maximum of twenty days from when the papal see becomes vacant.

Despite the absence of a Holy Father for a period of time, the faithful take comfort in knowing that the Church continues, reminded that the Lord Jesus Christ, the King of kings (Rev. 17:14), never relinquishes his divine reign over his Catholic Church. He is the Head of the Church and the Pope is His vicar.

The word “conclave” derives from the Latin words cum clavis, meaning “with key.” After the death of Pope Clement IV in November 1268, the interregnum dragged on for almost three years. The lay faithful of Viterbo, Italy, aided the selection process by locking the cardinal electors in the city’s episcopal palace, and also limiting their food supply until they elected a new pope. The new pope endeavored to obviate for the future such scandalous delay by the law of the conclave, which, almost in spite of the cardinals, he promulgated at the fifth session of the Second Council of Lyons in 1274. It is the first occasion on which we meet with the word conclave in connection with papal elections.

In a papal conclave, the College of Cardinals gathers to select the next pope. Cardinal electors are eligible to vote for a pope until they reach eighty years of age. The cardinals gather in the Sistine Chapel for a secret election—secret to thwart outside interference and avoid politicking. The cardinals pray for the Holy Spirit’s guidance before casting their votes. Although the Holy Spirit guides the decision-making of the Cardinals, the choice is entirely their own.

Once a pope is chosen, and provided he accepts his election, white smoke rises from the Sistine Chapel. The new Roman pontiff selects a papal (or regnal) name, and subsequently he is announced to the world with the words Habemus papam! We have a pope!

One important point to note is that, although only the Cardinals cast a vote, the prayers and sacrifices of the entirety of the faithful are important. So continue to pray for the Church!

Our Lady of Walsingham, intercede for us who have recourse to thee!
Ss. Gregory and Augustine, pray for us!
