

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS

GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: "Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee." Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

With the coming of the Holy Spirit, we are now clearly drawn into relationship with the Holy Trinity who is revealed to us in all glory and majesty. With the Feast of Pentecost, the apostles are armed with strength in order to fulfill the command given to them by Our Lord at His Ascension: Go into the world and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. It is now possible for them to do precisely that; for the Holy Spirit enlivens and emboldens them in the success of their apostolic work. It is the Holy Spirit who speaks to the prophets, who overshadows Our Lady and makes Her the mother of God. It is the Spirit who leads the Lord into the desert and is present at His baptism. It is the Spirit who inspires the writers of Sacred Scripture and guarantees the infallibility of the Church through Her bishops and priests. What is clear, then, is the need to become pliable in the hands of the Holy Spirit. All those who have gone before us clearly understood the need to find their confidence and trust in the Spirit and let themselves be led wherever God desires. Now maybe more than ever, the Church needs to find Her confidence and strength in the Holy Spirit by remaining faithful and obedient to the commands of God. For our part, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, let us strive to be men and women of fervent prayer through which we become like Her, easily moved by the promptings of the Spirit!

IN THANKSGIVING

A profound word of gratitude to everyone who assisted at Fr. Steven Kalinowski's First Mass on Sunday, 1 June. Father Kalinowski was deeply moved by all who came to unite their prayers with him at his first Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in his native Archdiocese. Many expressed their admiration for the special solemnity added by the music, the procession in which our Knights of Columbus and Guilds were represented, and the beautiful altar decorations (flowers and a new antependium of Portuguese tapestry fabric lovingly made by members of our Altar and Rosary Society). Thank you also to our photographer, Mrs. Kiera Petrick who helped to capture many beautiful moments of this occasion. And finally, thank you to our hospitality team for putting on a wonderful reception for the faithful to enjoy.

SUNDAY CONFESSIONS

Please note: Msgr. Witt has been sick and unable to join us on Sundays for Confessions. We are suspending confessions on Sunday until further notice. We plan on announcing a new schedule after the Feast of the Assumption. As a reminder, we have confessions Monday-Friday from 11am until noon; Wednesday from 5pm until 6pm; and on Saturday from 7am until 8am. Please keep Msgr. Witt in your prayers.

ORATORY PILGRIMAGE

Throughout history, the Church's faithful have taken Jubilee years to make pilgrimages to Rome in order to visit the major basilicas, walk through the Holy Doors, and gain the Jubilee Indulgence. Msgr. Morris will be leading a Jubilee Pilgrimage to Rome October 6th-16th, 2025. The fully-guided pilgrimage will include daily Latin Mass, time for prayer, and an itinerary of some of Rome's greatest sites, as well as a few hidden treasures. There is also a day trip to Monte Cassino. For more information, please see the flyers in the magazine holders at each of the church entryways or email Anna Kalinowski at auxiliatrix@oratorysga.org. Deadline to register is 30

June 2025. For more information visit the website: www.canterburypilgrimages.com/tour/9040.

NEW CONFESSIONAL LIGHTS

The two confessionals in Church now have lights indicating when the priest is present and when the confessional itself is available. The light for the priest is a white light at the top of the confessional where the priest sits. The penitent's light is only on one side of each of the two confessionals. When the light is green it is free; when the light is red it is occupied. Please only approach the side of the confessional that has a light indicating its availability. Going forward, the unlit side of each confessional will not be operative. A special word of gratitude is extended to Michael McMahon for agreeing to oversee this project to its completion. The Oratory is grateful for his generosity and ingenuity.

SUMMER SCHEDULE

While this is several months away, to allow the faithful of the Oratory to plan accordingly, the Oratory will again implement the summer schedule. Beginning on Monday, 30 June 2025 and concluding on Thursday, 14 August 2025 the Oratory will have one daily Holy Mass at 12:15 pm with Confessions at 11:00 am. The Saturday and Sunday schedules will remain the same. The offices hours during this time will be Monday through Thursday from 8:00 am until 2:30 pm. The offices will be closed on Fridays during the entire summer. In order to assist the priests and the staff, please do not anticipate any parish business on Fridays. These scheduling changes allow the priests of the Oratory to take vacation and more importantly to make their canonical retreats. So too, the changed office hours will allow our dedicated staff time for vacation. As we move closer to the month of July, more information will be provided.

THE COMMUNION RAIL

In recent weeks there have been several incidents where the faithful have fallen from the communion rail after receiving Holy Communion. The severity of the injuries has varied, but sadly this has occurred far too often. I would ask everyone to be attentive to the step up AND down at the communion rail. Please be aware of those with any mobility issues and assist them if no ushers are present. If you bring someone new to the Oratory for Holy Mass, please remind them of the step at the communion rail or if you see someone struggling, please assist them. If the community is more cognizant of this at the time of communion it is hoped that the accidents can cease. Please pray for those who have fallen, especially for a swift recovery from their injuries.

BIRTHRIGHT FATHER'S DAY CARDS

Birthright of Hillsboro has provided us with Father's Day cards. Please feel free to take as many as you need for the mothers in your life. For more than 40 years, Birthright of Hillsboro has offered free, confidential help to the mothers in our community. They need funds to continue the work of ministering to pregnant mothers, easing the burdens of those faced with an unexpected pregnancy, pledge funds toward rent and utilities and helping provide the essentials for children under the age of 3. Please consider supporting Birthright as you honor the special fathers in your life this Father's Day. Please also consider donating to their ministry.

WHAT ARE STOLE FEES?

It is customary in the Catholic Church for the provision of the clergy to offer "stole fees," at baptisms, weddings, funerals, or the blessing of homes. These stipends form a part of the compensation for the clergy. Most priests don't want to sound greedy or ungrateful, so stole fees are not often mentioned or taught about, but because people are not aware of them, the faithful usually find it helpful to learn that they do exist (and that the priests are grateful for your generosity!).

These fees are not obligatory but are given as a sign of appreciation and support for the clergy's work. The Catholic Church emphasizes that these fees should not be seen as payment for sacraments, which are free gifts of God. The clergy at the Oratory are particularly keen to make clear that no one who asks for a sacrament will ever be denied for lack of a stole fee.

In our archdiocese, there are suggested amounts that people usually give, and that information will be shared with you by the office when the event is scheduled. Thank you!

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION:

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

At confirmation, each Catholic receives the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit, which are identified by the prophet Isaiah - wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of God.

St. Thomas Aquinas helpfully explains each gift.

Wisdom is both the knowledge of and judgment about “divine things” and the ability to judge and direct human affairs according to divine truth (I/I.1.6; I/II.69.3; II/II.8.6; II/II.45.1–5).

Understanding is penetrating insight into the very heart of things, especially those higher truths that are necessary for our eternal salvation—in effect, the ability to “see” God (I/I.12.5; I/II.69.2; II/II.8.1–3).

Counsel allows a man to be directed by God in matters necessary for his salvation (II/II.52.1).

Fortitude denotes a firmness of mind in doing good and in avoiding evil, particularly when it is difficult or dangerous to do so, and the confidence to overcome all obstacles, even deadly ones, by virtue of the assurance of everlasting life (I/II.61.3; II/II.123.2; II/II.139.1).

Knowledge is the ability to judge correctly about matters of faith and right action, so as to never wander from the straight path of justice (II/II.9.3).

Piety is, principally, revering God with filial affection, paying worship and duty to God, paying due duty to all men on account of their relationship to God, and honoring the saints and not contradicting Scripture. The Latin word pietas denotes the reverence that we give to our father and to our country; since God is the Father of all, the worship of God is also called piety (I/II.68.4; II/II.121.1).

Fear of God is, in this context, “filial” or chaste fear whereby we revere God and avoid separating ourselves from him—as opposed to “servile” fear, whereby we fear punishment (I/II.67.4; II/II.19.9).

These are heroic character traits that Jesus Christ alone possesses in their plenitude but he freely shares them with his Church. They are infused into every Christian as a permanent endowment at baptism, nurtured by the practice of the seven virtues, and sealed in the sacrament of confirmation.

These gifts, according to Aquinas, are habits or dispositions provided by God as supernatural helps to man in the process of his perfection. They enable man to transcend the limitations of human reason and human nature and participate in the very life of God. Aquinas insisted that they are necessary for man’s salvation, which he cannot achieve on his own.

Because grace builds upon nature, the seven gifts work with the seven virtues and also with the twelve fruits of the Spirit and the eight beatitudes. The emergence of the gifts is fostered by the practice of the virtues, which in turn are perfected by the exercise of the gifts. The proper exercise of the gifts, in turn, produce the fruits of the Spirit in the life of the Christian: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, modesty, self-control, and chastity. The goal of this cooperation among virtues, gifts, and fruits is the attainment of the eight-fold state of beatitude described by Christ in the Sermon on the Mount.
