

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS

GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: "Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee." Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

Charity is the key which opens up heaven. How easy it is sometime to neglect the practice of charity in all of its forms, but especially as our Gospel reminds us through our care and concern for those less fortunate than ourselves. None of us is able to solve the world's problems; however, we can respond to those around us who might be in need. The decision to assist and how to assist should be prudent and always made in conversation with the Lord. This is why our daily prayer lives are so important. We must learn to listen to the Lord and allow these constant conversations with Him to determine the direction of our lives. It also must be remembered that our charity is not limited to what we can give but must also be manifested in our willingness to love neighbors, enemies, and strangers alike. Society is brutish and litigious marked by violence and anger. Modern man not only lacks civility but is given permission to be uncharitable in his thoughts, his words, and in his heart. Because of the charity shown to us by the Holy Trinity, we are compelled to offer that to others. Simply put, we love because we have first been loved. Remembering the gift that God bestows upon us through His merciful love animates our charity. It is often forgotten that our citizenship is heaven and our desire should be salvation. Let us strive to live Christian charity for the sake of others but also for our own journey to heaven.

FESTIVAL OF SAINT LOUIS: 25 August 2025

In the coming weeks you will be receiving information regarding the liturgical celebrations for the Feast of St. Louis, Monday, 25 August 2025. With each passing year, since we started the Festival, the response from the community has grown. I would encourage everyone to participate in as much as their schedules will allow. A Rosary Novena at the statue will begin on 17 August and lead up to the feast day itself on the 25th. There are many other prayers and events that make up the festival. I especially recommend the procession to the Apotheosis of St. Louis in Forest Park which will take place on Monday the 25th. This is a remarkably beautiful experience, and your prayerful participation will allow us to celebrate well the patron of our archdiocese. Please see festivalofsaintlouis.com for all of the details.

PARISH HOMESCHOOL CO-OP

The True, Good and Beautiful Homeschool Co-op is a well-kept secret in our parish. We have been established since the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine moved to the current location in July of 2018. Our homeschool co-op serves our parish families with children aged 3-14 on either Tuesday or Thursday each week and we are now located at Little Flower School just down the street. Our parish ministry offers supplemental education in Literature, Music and Art for our homeschool families. Each subject is taught from a traditional Catholic perspective focusing on Church history and our treasures of the faith. We provide Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (Level 1) and a Learning Center for ages 3-5 and space for the babies to play and mamas to sit. Registration for this year is almost closed. If you are interested in becoming a co-op family, more details are on the OSGA website: stlouislainmass.com/about-us/homeschool-co-op

We have a wishlist on that website that is always growing. If you feel called to contribute, please take a look. Contact Cory Grizzle for more information or any questions at co-op@oratorysga.org

SUMMER SCHEDULE

The Oratory's summer schedule will conclude on Thursday, 14 August 2025. The Oratory has one daily Holy Mass at 12:15 pm with Confessions at 11:00 am. No Adoration or Confessions on Wednesdays during the summer schedule. The Saturday and Sunday schedules will remain the same. The office hours during this time will be MON-THU from 8:00 am until 2:30 pm. The office is closed on Fridays during the entire summer. In order to assist the priests and the staff, please do not anticipate any parish business on Fridays. These scheduling changes allow the priests of the Oratory to take vacation and more importantly to make their canonical retreats. So too, the changed office hours will allow our dedicated staff time for vacation.

THE COMMUNION RAIL

There have been several incidents where the faithful have fallen from the communion rail after receiving Holy Communion. The severity of the injuries has varied, but sadly this has occurred far too often. I would ask everyone to be attentive to the step up AND down at the communion rail. Please be aware of those with any mobility issues and assist them if no ushers are present. If you bring someone new to the Oratory for Holy Mass, please remind them of the step at the communion rail or if you see someone struggling, please assist them. If the community is more cognizant of this at the time of communion it is hoped that the accidents can cease. Please pray for those who have fallen, especially for a swift recovery from their injuries.

BLESSED ITEMS

If you wish to have items blessed, please drop them off at the rectory (Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm) and include your name and telephone number. Please make sure all items are clearly marked. Once Msgr. Morris or Fr. Rennier have blessed the items Donna Mueller, Administrative Assistant to the Rector, will call you to let you know the items are ready for pick up (from the rectory office, Mon-Thu, 9am-2pm). Please drop off/pick up items at the front door on Dale Avenue, across from the field parking lot.

WHAT ARE STOLE FEES?

It is customary in the Catholic Church for the provision of the clergy to offer "stole fees," at baptisms, weddings, funerals, or the blessing of homes. These stipends form a part of the compensation for the clergy. Most priests don't want to sound greedy or ungrateful, so stole fees are not often mentioned or taught about, but because people are not aware of them, the faithful usually find it helpful to learn that they do exist (and that the priests are grateful for your generosity!).

These fees are not obligatory but are given as a sign of appreciation and support for the clergy's work. The Catholic Church emphasizes that these fees should not be seen as payment for sacraments, which are free gifts of God. The clergy at the Oratory are particularly keen to make clear that no one who asks for a sacrament will ever be denied for lack of a stole fee.

In our archdiocese, there are suggested amounts that people usually give, and that information will be shared with you by the office when the event is scheduled. Thank you!

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION - ABOUT THE USE OF LATIN IN THE LITURGY

Christine Morhmann discusses the development and use of Latin in her book on Liturgical Latin. In a few short essays, she clarifies a few common points, noting that, in any language, there are two reasons for its existence:

1. Communication
2. Expression

The use of language for communication favors simplicity and clarity. This is our typical, everyday language. We desire to understand and be understood, so we speak an un-ornamented, vernacular language.

It's the 2nd use of language that, in our practical, secular society neglects. The use of language for expression favors poetic depth and symbolic meaning. This type of language connects to eternal, universal truth which cannot be fully contained in language. The language of expression attempts to name that which cannot be named. This is why a song, or poem, or liturgy always has additional layers of meaning and nuance.

The liturgy, because it addresses the God beyond all comprehension, uses the second type of language. We speak to God using what we might call hieratic expression (hieratic means a priestly, or heaven-oriented language). This manner of symbolic speech has always been used in religion and poetry. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass has never prioritized clarity of communication over the expressiveness of the symbolism. Often, we think that liturgical communication must be "relevant" in order to be of value. This is opposite from the truth. The words of Holy Mass are for God the Father. Not us. The goal of our liturgical language is to make a connection with his glory. The words are meant to be mysterious and transcendent.

The Council of Trent did not mistakenly impose liturgical Latin upon the Church even though it had become a "dead language." The use of stylized liturgical languages was in use in the very beginning of the Catholic Church. It all starts with Homer and the Illiad, which was written in a stylized, archaic form of Greek (not the everyday use of the language). He used a hieratic, formal language because his poem interacts with the Greek gods, and the gods did not use common language. Following this, the earliest Greek translation of the Old Testament, called the Septuagint, was written in a stylized hieratic language. It was not written in everyday Greek. The same phenomenon occurs when liturgical Latin began to displace Greek at Holy Mass around the 4th century. The Latin in use at Holy Mass has always prioritized the formal, sacred nature of our speech when directed to God.

So, this all being the case, what exactly is the value of language used as expression? Even when we don't understand every word? Such a language expresses the unity of the community, the transcendence of God, and our reverence for him. We do not speak to God the way we casually speak to each other. Holy Mass is not simply one activity among other activities. It uses a God-directed language to give him thanks, ask mercy, and offer sacrifice. A sacred language, differentiated from everyday speech.
