

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS

GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO | REVERENTIA | COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: "Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee." Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem!

—The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

The celebration of the martyrs is a perfect reminder of the centrality and necessity of the Cross. The cross remains a constant in the spiritual life precisely because the Lord chose the cross as the manner of our salvation. His teaching and preaching speak clearly to the need to suffer and die in order to live. The Son of Man came into the world to give His life as ransom for many. So too, Our Lord speaks of the cross as the only way to follow after Him. We cannot call ourselves Christians unless we are willing to suffer. This is why it is necessary to embrace whatever sacrifices come to us. No one wants to endure pain and hardship evidenced by the Lord's agony in the garden. Nevertheless, the Lord willingly picked up His cross in obedience to the will of the Father. He did so with confidence because of their intimate union. So, it must be for us as well. Through a life of prayer joining ourselves to Christ, we learn to do what He did, we learn a confident obedience in the face of hardships and sacrifice. The beauty the cross offers to believers is beyond the understanding of the modern mind because of an unwillingness to be obedient which makes it difficult to accept suffering. For St. Laurence, the strength and courage he manifested during his martyrdom came from an ardent love of the Lord. Suffering is never to be endured for its own sake, but for love of God in Christ. Find courage through the example of the martyr, St. Laurence, and take up your daily cross and follow after Our Lord in deep and abiding love.

PARISH HOMESCHOOL CO-OP

The True, Good and Beautiful Homeschool Co-op is a well-kept secret in our parish. We have been established since the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine moved to the current location in July of 2018. Our homeschool co-op serves our parish families with children aged 3-14 on either Tuesday or Thursday each week and we are now located at Little Flower School just down the street. Our parish ministry offers supplemental education in Literature, Music and Art for our homeschool families. Each subject is taught from a traditional Catholic perspective focusing on Church history and our treasures of the faith. We provide Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (Level 1) and a Learning Center for ages 3-5 and space for the babies to play and mamas to sit. Registration for this year is almost closed. ### THE COMMUNION RAIL

There have been several incidents where the faithful have fallen from the communion rail after receiving Holy Communion. The severity of the injuries has varied, but sadly this has occurred far too often. I would ask everyone to be attentive to the step up AND down at the communion rail. Please be aware of those with any mobility issues and assist them if no ushers are present. If you bring someone new to the Oratory for Holy Mass, please remind them of the step at the communion rail or if you see someone struggling, please assist them. If the community is more cognizant of this at the time of communion it is hoped that the accidents can cease. Please pray for those who have fallen, especially for a swift recovery from their injuries.

BLESSED ITEMS

If you wish to have items blessed, please drop them off at the rectory (Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm) and include your name and telephone number. Please make sure all items are clearly marked. Once Msgr. *****

WHAT ARE STOLE FEES?

It is customary in the Catholic Church for the provision of the clergy to offer "stole fees," at baptisms, weddings, funerals, or the blessing of homes. These stipends form a part of the compensation for the clergy. Most priests don't want to sound greedy or ungrateful, so stole fees are not often mentioned or taught about, but because people are not aware of them, the faithful usually find it helpful to learn that they do exist (and that the priests are grateful for your generosity!).

These fees are not obligatory but are given as a sign of appreciation and support for the clergy's work. The Catholic Church emphasizes that these fees should not be seen as payment for sacraments, which are free gifts of God. The clergy at the Oratory are particularly keen to make clear that no one who asks for a sacrament will ever be denied for lack of a stole fee.

In our archdiocese, there are suggested amounts that people usually give, and that information will be shared with you by the office when the event is scheduled. Thank you!

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION - ABOUT THE USE OF LATIN IN THE LITURGY

Christine Morhmann discusses the development and use of Latin in her book on Liturgical Latin. In a few short essays, she clarifies a few common points, noting that, in any language, there are two reasons for its existence:

1. Communication
2. Expression

The use of language for communication favors simplicity and clarity. This is our typical, everyday language. We desire to understand and be understood, so we speak an un-ornamented, vernacular language.

It's the 2nd use of language that, in our practical, secular society neglects. The use of language for expression favors poetic depth and symbolic meaning. This type of language connects to eternal, universal truth which cannot be fully contained in language. The language of expression attempts to name that which cannot be named. This is why a song, or poem, or liturgy always has additional layers of meaning and nuance.

The liturgy, because it addresses the God beyond all comprehension, uses the second type of language. We speak to God using what we might call hieratic expression (hieratic means a priestly, or heaven-oriented language). This manner of symbolic speech has always been used in religion and poetry. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass has never prioritized clarity of communication over the expressiveness of the symbolism. Often, we think that liturgical communication must be "relevant" in order to be of value. This is opposite from the truth. The words of Holy Mass are for God the Father. Not us. The goal of our liturgical language is to make a connection with his glory. The words are meant to be mysterious and transcendent.

The Council of Trent did not mistakenly impose liturgical Latin upon the Church even though it had become a "dead language." The use of stylized liturgical languages was in use in the very beginning of the Catholic Church. It all starts with Homer and the Illiad, which was written in a stylized, archaic form of Greek (not the everyday use of the language). He used a hieratic, formal language because his poem interacts with the Greek gods, and the gods did not use common language.

Feast of St. Laurence (9th Sunday after Pentecost)

10 August 2025

Following this, the earliest Greek translation of the Old Testament, called the Septuagint, was written in a stylized hieratic language. It was not written in everyday Greek. The same phenomenon occurs when liturgical Latin began to displace Greek at Holy Mass around the 4th century. The Latin in use at Holy Mass has always prioritized the formal, sacred nature of our speech when directed to God.

So, this all being the case, what exactly is the value of language used as expression? Even when we don't understand every word? Such a language expresses the unity of the community, the transcendence of God, and our reverence for him. We do not speak to God the way we casually speak to each other. Holy Mass is not simply one activity among other activities. It uses a God-directed language to give him thanks, ask mercy, and offer sacrifice. A sacred language, differentiated from everyday speech.

LITANY TO THE IMMACULATE HEART

Lord, have mercy on us.
Christ, have mercy on us.
Lord, have mercy on us.
Christ, hear us.

God the Father of Heaven,
God the Son, Redeemer of the world,
God the Holy Ghost,
Holy Trinity, One God,

Heart of Mary,
Heart of Mary, like unto the Heart of God,
Heart of Mary, united to the Heart of Jesus,
Heart of Mary, instrument of the Holy Ghost,
Heart of Mary, sanctuary of the Divine Trinity,
Heart of Mary, tabernacle of God Incarnate,
Heart of Mary, immaculate from thy creation,
Heart of Mary, full of grace,
Heart of Mary, blessed among all hearts,
Heart of Mary, throne of glory,
Heart of Mary, most humble,
Heart of Mary, holocaust of Divine Love,
Heart of Mary, fastened to the Cross with Jesus Crucified,
Heart of Mary, comfort of the afflicted,
Heart of Mary, refuge of sinners,
Heart of Mary, hope of the agonizing,
Heart of Mary, seat of mercy,

Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,
Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,
Lamb of God, Who takest away the sins of the world,

V. Immaculate Mary, meek and humble of heart,
R. Make our hearts like unto the Heart of Jesus.

Let Us Pray:

O most merciful God, Who, for the salvation of sinners and the refuge of the miserable, wast pleased that the Most Pure Heart of Mary should be most like in charity and pity to the Divine Heart of Thy Son, Jesus Christ, grant that we, who commemorate this sweet and loving Heart, by the merits and intercession of the same Blessed Virgin, may merit to be found like unto the Heart of Jesus, through the same Christ Our Lord.

R. Amen.

(This litany was composed by John Henry (Cardinal) Newman shortly after he converted to Catholicism in 1845. Let us pray this with reverence and recall the many blessings that have flowed through Mary from Jesus to us.)
