Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: "Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee." Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem! ~ The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

On this Second Sunday after Epiphany, we are presented with The Wedding Feast of Cana, the first of the Lord's miracles. We are afforded the opportunity to contemplate this miraculous occurrence as we continue to rest comfortably in the mystery of the Incarnation. In both instances, our Blessed Mother plays a unique and central role to the unfolding of the realities around Her: She is truly the Mediatrix of all graces, prompting our Lord to make manifest His glory. So too, she is the worthy tabernacle of the Word Made Flesh. In both, she is the first apostle testifying to the joys of Our Savior. It is important to recognize the necessary and unique role that the Blessed Virgin Mary plays in the unfolding of salvation history and to honor her appropriately. This we do despite what the world might think or the perceived confusion of unbelievers about what Our Lady does for us. Our Lord performs this first of His many miracles in order to make manifest His glory and to confirm the faith of His disciples. This may also be said of the Incarnation – the Savior takes flesh to manifest His glory and the glory of the Father as well as to strengthen and confirm the faith of all who choose to believe in Him. What is required of us? We must have faith, clinging tirelessly to the mystery of Christ and finding safe harbor in our Holy Mother, the Church. We must constantly safeguard and strengthen our bond with our Mother Mary. We must believe in the power and glory, might and majesty of Our Savior and then go forth and witness to the truth of Christ to the ends of the world!

FIRST FRIDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION: CLARIFICATION AND APOLOGY

It has long been a desire of mine as rector to have more Eucharistic Adoration at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine. For a brief time, several years ago, we did have extended periods of adoration on Wednesdays and Fridays; unfortunately, the community was unable to sustain that with consistent adorers. Sadly, there were times when Our Lord was left alone in Church which of course should not and cannot ever happen. I had hoped that the community could begin adoration again with the First Friday of each month for 2026. It was anticipated that we would start on Friday, 2 January 2026. Again, we were unable to find a sufficient number of the faithful to be present at Adoration and to fill all of the hours. I made the decision to cancel adoration. This decision, however, was not communicated to all those who had signed up and who came to Church on 2 January expecting Eucharistic Adoration. I am truly sorry for any inconvenience this confusion caused and I am hopeful that those who did commit would be willing to do so again going forward. To that end, I am hopeful that we can find a sufficient number of the faithful to spend time with our Lord on Friday, 6 February 2026 from 1:00 pm until 6:00 pm. Hopefully, Adoration will take place every First Friday afternoon going forward to honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As a reminder: faithful are needed to adopt an hour of adoration to ensure that the Blessed Sacrament is never left alone. To sign up for an hour, please email Anthony Jones at events@oratorysga.org

FREE BOWLING AT EPIPHANY LANES

Oratory faithful of all ages are invited to Epiphany Lanes on Sunday, 15 February, 12:30-2:30 p.m., for a bowling party courtesy of Vita Communis Young Adults. Children should be accompanied by an adult. Food is available for purchase. Epiphany Lanes address: 3164 Ivanhoe Ave, St. Louis, MO.

IN GRATITUDE

As we continue to rejoice in the mystery of the Incarnation and thank God for His mercy, I want to express my gratitude to all the faithful of the Oratory for your on-going monetary support for the work of the Oratory. I am particularly grateful for your generosity not only to the weekly commitments needed to sustain the Oratory, but also to the success of Giving Tuesday in early December and your generosity to the Advent fundraiser for the Men's Schola. In a short period of time, there were many financial expectations set before you and the community has responded generously to these various requests. Please know of my daily prayers for our whole community and my personal gratitude in being able to serve a community so generous and faithful.

CANTORES SANCTI LUDOVICI ADVENT FUNDRAISER UPDATE

A great thank you to all who participated in the Cantores Sancti Ludovici Advent Fundraiser. Through your immense generosity, we were able to raise over $7,500 for the support of the Solemn Liturgical life at Ss. Gregory and Augustine made possible by the Cantores' assistance.

Thank you also to all who continue to be monthly supporters of our mission. If you would like to begin a monthly sponsorship of the Cantores, please email schola@oratorysga.org. God reward your generosity!

EPIPHANY WATER, SALT, AND CHALK 2026

Epiphany water, salt, and chalk have been blessed and are available to the faithful for as long as it remains. Please only take two of the water bottles so that everyone has an opportunity to have Epiphany Water. Also, you are free to use your own containers for Epiphany water. All of the blessed water will be available until we run out.

2026 CALENDARS

The calendars for 2026 for the Oratory Community are still in transit. As soon as the calendars arrive we will put them in the main vestibule and by the side doors. This year's calendar comes from the Transalpine Redemptorists, a community of traditional monks rooted in the Redemptorists charism who practice both the contemplative and active life. Their motherhouse is in Scotland and they have recently founded a house in Montana.

You are kindly asked to initially take one calendar per household. Once everyone has had a chance to pick up a calendar, there should be more available in late January for those who need another one. Thank you!

COAT DRIVE

The Knights of Columbus will be collecting donations of coats for local kids from the month of December through 1 February 2026. Please deposit coats in the large box in the vestibule and contact Jack Ryan with any questions: jmryan2023@gmail.com or 314-677-7754

TRIVIA KNIGHT FUNDRAISER: 7 FEBRUARY 2026

Saturday, 7 February 2026, a Trivia Knight fundraiser hosted by OSGA and Cathedral KofC will be held at Boland Hall. Our annual event is back and bigger than ever! Trivia, Raffles, 50/50 drawing, prizes, and more! Round sponsorships are available. Please Contact Sam Ashlock for more information at: kofc17355@oratorysga.org. A flyer with more information is coming soon.

CATECHESIS ON CONFESSION

The beginning of the new calendar is an opportune time to offer a few words on the nature of our confessions. Particularly that when we present ourselves for confession, it is after a complete examination of conscience striving for a full and integral confession aware of our sins and based not on emotion only. So too, those who make frequent confession (which is encouraged) should examine their consciences for the sin of presumption.

The Catechism of the Council of Trent provides a thorough and complete explication of the Sacrament of Penance. I want to draw particular attention to the exhortation that confession should be complete and entire. The Church teaches us that we are responsible for confessing all of our mortal sins in both number (how often) and kind (nature of the sin itself). As such when we come for confession, we should not only present those sins that are on our hearts or that have easily come to mind but also confess all sins we can recall after a thorough examination of conscience.

Second Sunday after Epiphany

I encourage everyone to access a thorough and complete guide for examining your conscience. This will assist you in recalling your serious sins as well as venial sins which also work against growing in holiness. A good examination of conscience will also provide the requisite detachment from the emotions that are often associated with the sins for which we are guilty. There are situations where we might feel bad about a particular interaction, situation, but no sin was involved and then there are times when we have grown so accustomed to our sins that we no longer feel guilt about them and fail to confess them. Prepare well for the sacrament so that you can also use well the graces received.

THANK YOU!

A huge thank you to our OSGA families of the homeschool co-op, our OSGA young adult group, Vita Communis, and our parish family for all of the responses for our advent blessing bags for Birthright in Hillsboro.

We were able to provide over 30 bags for moms including a small gift and some chocolates; 35 baby gifts including an outfit and a gift; 28 "baby showers in a basket"; and 10 boxes and packages of diapers and wipes. Our children had a gathering event in which they were able to assemble these bags, perform some beautiful advent music to each other, and have some fun family time. A huge gratitude of thanks to our young adult group, Vita Communis for adding to these gifts and transporting them to Birthright for us.

DRINK BREVIARY COFFEE & SUPPORT THE ORATORY

Breviary Coffee is for sale at all coffee hours. Our coffee is locally roasted specifically for us in small batches from a single-origin, fair trade source and makes for a great gift for family and friends. 100% of the profits go to support the Oratory and fund our coffee hours. If you would like to purchase a 1-lb bag, the cost is $16 and our coffee hour volunteers will be happy to assist you with the purchase. We can sell both ground and whole-bean. The roast is a medium-light roast and the cup of coffee that results is well-balanced and easy to drink, with notes of citrus but still sweet with a clean taste.

ANNUAL GIVING STATEMENTS

Annual Giving statements will be available (to those individuals/families who donated $500 or more in 2025) beginning Sunday, 18 January 2026. If you donated less than $500 and would like to receive a statement, please email the office. Statements will be available in the boxes on the back table in the Church vestibule. Please notify the office (via email please) immediately if any changes to your contact information need to be made regarding your name or address. This is also an opportunity to notify the office with any changes to phone number, cell number or email address. Again, please make every effort to notify the office of these changes through email. Our email address is office@oratorysga.org. In advance thank you for your generosity and attentiveness to these details.

BLESSED ITEMS

If you wish to have items blessed, please drop them off at the rectory (Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm) and include your name and telephone number. Please make sure all items are clearly marked. Once Msgr. Morris or Fr. Rennie have blessed the items Donna Mueller, Administrative Assistant to the Rector, will call you to let you know the items are ready for pick up (from the rectory office, Mon-Fri, 9am-2pm). Please drop off/pick up items at the front door on Dale Avenue, across from the field parking lot.

CRITICAL/EMERGENCY RESPONSE

The recent violence against Christians, and particularly the Catholic Church, is a serious cause for concern. While being vigilant and aware of the various situations in which we might find ourselves, we must guard ourselves against living fearfully in the world. Assisting in finding this proper balance, the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine has plans in place in the event of a critical or emergency incident. In consultation with the Rector of the Oratory, the Ushers of the Oratory will be the men in charge of responding to any emergency situation. All the faithful of the Oratory are asked to follow their directives in the case of any critical incident or emergency situation. A proper chain of command, led by those with the necessary training, will assist the whole community if a critical and/or life-threatening situation should present itself. I am grateful to Dr. Robert Morgan and Tim Turtine for their leadership and expertise along with other members of the community and all of the ushers for undertaking this necessary and serious responsibility. If anyone is interested in serving in this capacity, please contact Dr. Morgan at ostiarii@oratorysga.org to become an usher which will facilitate your participation. Finally, if any member of our community has concerns, please communicate those directly to Rector.

STREET PARKING

As our community continues to grow, parking on Sundays is at a premium, especially at the 10:00 am Holy Mass. If you are parking on the street, please do not block any driveways. It was recently communicated that a driveway was blocked and the person living there was unable to get out. Fortunately, this neighbor was willing to wait until the conclusion of Holy Mass. Sadly, not all of our neighbors are happy about our presence or our growth and it is important that we work with them even if they do not want to work with us. Let's not provide any opportunity to cause or create a problem. Please be conscious of working to be good neighbors and do not block drives or park in places that are not available to us.

ADULTS SEEKING THE SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION

We welcome those interested in becoming Catholic. To get started in that process within the OSGA community, please email one of our priests for an introductory meeting. Their contacts are available in the bulletin. After this, candidates for Initiation at the Oratory will be directed to complete a registration form with our Administrator.

Second Sunday after Epiphany

Catechism classes are held in the St Joseph Room (rectory basement) generally on a bi-monthly basis on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays from 5:45-6:45 pm.

The content surrounds a set of topics central to Catholic teaching, as set forth by Msgr. Morris. Deacon Pieper moderates most meetings through a question and answer format and hopes to promote sincere dialogue with the candidates regarding those topics and/or related questions. The intent is to communicate Christ and His Church. Sacraments are offered on an individual basis, on a rolling schedule throughout the year, after mutual discernment by the candidate, our deacon and priests.

NEW PRO-LIFE COORDINATOR

The whole community would like to thank Rory (Aurora) Miller for serving as the coordinator of Pro-Life activities for the Oratory for the past several years. Rory has done a great job leading the Oratory's involvement in fostering the culture of life. She has elected to step down from this position and we are in need of a new volunteer coordinator.

The duties of the position in its current configuration include:

- Attends diocesan pro-life meetings at Rigali Center.
- Coordinates 40 Days for Life twice each year.
- Goes to monthly meetings at the pro-life Advocacy group.
- Gathers information about upcoming Pro-Life events and submits this for posting and publication at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine.

The new coordinator is encouraged to explore other avenues for the Oratory community to remain involved in and part of the Pro-Life efforts of the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

If you are interested, please contact the rector, Msgr. Morris (rector@oratorysga.org). In advance, thank you for your consideration and generosity.

RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

For those in our community who are new to the Traditional Latin Mass, when you approach the altar rail for holy communion it is the custom to begin filling in the altar rail at the far right near St. Joseph's altar and fill in the rail until its end at the Marian altar. This practice is not impacted by which side of the Church you are seated. You are allowed, and encouraged, to switch sides in order to keep the communion line moving. This is particularly important when there are two sacred ministers distributing Holy Communion. So too, do not overly delay approaching the rail waiting for others to return to their pews. If everyone moves with attention to what is happening, there should be a flow of movement between those departing the altar rail and those approaching the altar rail. Also, for daily Holy Mass: please kneel at the rail only where the houseling cloth has been prepared for communion. Please keep in mind that we should not keep the Lord waiting but moving with grace and deliberation to the altar rail to receive our Eucharistic Lord.

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION: TRIBUS MIRACULIS

The antiphon for the Magnificat sung at 2nd Vespers of the Epiphany makes clear the triple nature of this great feast, second only to Easter in importance in the liturgical calendar:

Tribus miráculis ornátum diem sanctum cólimus: hódie stella magos duxit ad præsépium; hódie vinum ex aqua factum est ad núptias; hódie in Iordáne a Ioánnē Christus baptizári vóluit, ut salváret nos, allelúia. We venerate this holy day adorned with three wondrous events: today, a star led the Magi to the manger; today, wine was made from water at the wedding feast; today, Christ willed to be baptized by John in the Jordan to save us. Alleluia.

These events are the three great manifestations (epiphania in Greek) that show the world who our Lord really is: truly divine and truly human. The royal son who comes to reign from the cross and bring real salvation to all creation. The recognition of the Magi make it clear that He comes into the world for all, not just the Jewish people. The gifts they bring spell out who He is: gold as befits a king, incense as befits a deity, and myrrh as befits one preparing for death. We celebrate these three epiphany events in three feast days: Epiphany for the Magi, culminating in the Octave day on which we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, and the Sunday after the Baptism when we celebrate the miracle of water into wine at the Wedding at Cana. The story is told in the gospel of the Mass today, and is familiar to all Catholics. As is the case with all the Johannine gospel pericopies, the poetic language has more layers than can be uncovered over a lifetime and offer stimulating graces to enrich our lives. One of these is recapped in the Communion antiphon:

Dicit Dominus: Implete hydrias aqua et ferte archilriclino. Cum gustasset architriclinus aquam vinum factum, dicit sponso: Servasti vinum bonum usque adhuc. Hoc signum fecit Jesus primum coram discipulis suis

The Lord says: Fill the vats with water and bring to the chief steward. When the chief steward had tasted the water become wine, he says to the bridegroom: You have kept the good wine until now. This first sign (semeion) Jesus did in the presence of his disciples.

The antiphon summarizes the Gospel story succinctly. Its famous melody is a model of realism in depicting the emotions of the scene and displays very vivid contrasts. The first dicit, introducing the Saviour's words, is a very calm and moderate Mode 6 pattern. With the second dicit, introducing those of the chief steward, everything changes. Already from the intonation we can gather that we have here to do with something unusual. Then the melody soars with astonishment, the singer cries out: 'Who can do such a thing?' With the threefold repetition of the same high torculus one seems to see the man shaking his head as if unable to comprehend. Then there is a notable pause, after which the second phrase, relating in reverent astonishment this first of the seven great 'signs', follows solemnly. The command beginning with implete recites on the tonic, but three times reaches down to the lower third, reflecting the pouring of water down into the vats, while the command beginning with et ferte supports itself on the dominant a. The melody shows a calm and quiet sense of authority. Thus in this first public miracle Christ revealed Himself as Lord and King of creation. An act of the will, a word from His lips, and nature obeys—the water changes into wine. Today we also have been witnesses of a miracle of change; but of one much more sublime than is here related. This was only a type of and preparation for the Eucharistic transubstantiation. With today's miracle the Saviour began His public Messianic activity. The consecration at the Last Supper is the final miracle He wrought before His death, but it continues to the end of time. We are privileged to partake of that most excellent wine, the very blood of Christ, and thus have received a share in the supreme Godhead, as the secret of the fifth Sunday of Easter so beautifully puts it. Today He has prepared a marriage banquet for us. Until now, the last, the Messianic era, the Lord has reserved this good rich wine. But its inebriating powers only reveal themselves in us in the measure with which we correspond to our duties (implete hydrias) and give ourselves over wholly to Christ. This 'good wine' is to prepare us for the change of the earthly man into the spiritual, for the eternal, blissful nuptials with the heavenly bridegroom, Christ.
