

THE ORATORY OF SAINTS
GREGORY & AUGUSTINE

TRADITIO

REVERENTIA

COMMUNITAS

Welcome to the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine

The Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine is pleased to welcome you. We are an apostolate of the Archdiocese of Saint Louis faithful to the teachings of the Church and striving to grow as a family of faith through the celebration of the Traditional Latin Mass and other Sacraments.

In the First Book of The Confessions, the other great St. Augustine (of Hippo) wrote the following: “Thou hast made us for Thyself and our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee.” Whether you are curious about the traditional Latin Mass and interested in exploring its beauty, searching for a parish community where you and your family will feel at home, or seeking rest for your heart, we hope that the Oratory of Saints Gregory and Augustine can provide that respite for you.

Our bulletin serves to provide information about the weekly activities occurring here at the Oratory. Along with our website (www.stlouislatinmass.com), the bulletin is your point of contact with the ever-increasing activities at the Oratory. I hope this will give you some sense of the grace of God, the love of Jesus Christ, and work of the Holy Spirit in our midst. I am delighted that God has brought you here! Oremus pro invicem! ~ The Very Reverend Monsignor C. Eugene Morris, Rector

FROM THE RECTOR

In only a year, the violence in the world has increased. Modern man continues to rely upon financial and governmental systems to help achieve lasting peace. In the current cultural climate, it is commonly accepted that the greatest obstacle to peace is religion, specifically the Catholic Church. Of course this is not true. In fact, there is no true peace unless it comes from Christ and explicitly involves Christ. So too, the beloved spouse of Christ, Holy Mother the Church, must take an active role in the transformation of society and culture to continue the peace that the Cross has given us. The peace that the Lord offers the disciples in the Gospel today is born from the new life He has gained for us on the cross. This peace, true peace, is not mere resignation or apathy that accepts the status quo as a means to quell discord. The peace that Our Savior brings has been purchased by His broken body and sealed in His Precious Blood. This is why His peace is everlasting and the only source to truly transform society and culture. Even now, wars are waging and the world watches as nations use violence to resolve conflict. Our own country is divided and violent, always on the brink of serious social upheaval and discord. Regardless of where we live, we are impacted by this violence, and we pray for an end to violence in the world. As we strive for peace among nations we must also work on the peace of Christ in our own hearts and lives. We must be men and women of authentic peace that comes from faith in the Risen Christ. There can be no doubts about His glorious Resurrection that would impede our trust in the Lord. Through our own lives of faith, clinging to Christ above all things we can be instruments of Christ’s peace to each other.

IN THANKSGIVING

A profound word of gratitude to everyone who assisted in making our celebration of Lent, the Sacred Triduum, and Easter Sunday truly beautiful gifts of praise to God. For all those who assisted in veiling our statues and preparing the Altar of Repose; for the musicians, men and women's scholas and the choir; for the servers, Masters of Ceremony; the Head Sacristan and those who assisted him; the sacred ministers who assisted as deacon and subdeacon; for those who helped clean the Church and the Knights of Columbus for the work as ushers. May God reward your generosity!

ORATORY CO-OP IS LOOKING FOR A CATECHIST

The OSGA True, Good and Beautiful Homeschool Co-op is looking for help. We offer both a Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program for 3-5 year olds and a supplemental Art, Music, and Literature program for 6-14 year olds. We are in need of a CGS Level 1 Catechist for Thursday morning. If you are trained and would like to volunteer your time for one morning a week, OR if you would like to be trained, a local training is beginning for the school year. The co-op is willing to fund this training in return for leading our Thursday CGS program. If you are interested or know of anyone who is, please contact Cory Grizzle at co-op@oratorysga.org

GIRLS' GUILD SALE OF HAND-PAINTED DECORATIVE EGGS AND BAKED GOODS

The Our Lady of Walsingham Girls' Guild will hold an Easter bake-sale following the 10 am Mass on Sunday, 12 April. In addition to baked goods, the girls will also be selling hand-painted decorative eggs for use as Easter decorations at home (goose and chicken available). Look for the station between the church and the school or in the St. Joseph Room in the event of rain. All proceeds go to future Girls' Guild activities. Cash and Venmo accepted.

EASTER EGG HUNT

Please join us for our Annual Low Sunday Easter Egg Hunt on Sunday, 12 April. We will meet at the ball field across from church 15 minutes after the conclusion of Holy Mass. There is no admission fee and all ages are welcome. Children will be sorted by age.

CELL PHONES

There has been an increasing number of cell phones ringing during Holy Mass. Please be sure to silence your cell phones before entering Church. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

ST. LOUIS MARIAN CONFERENCE

The 27th Anniversary St. Louis Marian Conference is 15-17 May 2026 at the Renaissance St. Louis Airport Hotel. Everyone is welcome and parking is FREE. The cost is only $60 for 3 full, dynamic days of inspiring talks, Holy Mass, Adoration, Confession, a large selection of vendors, beautiful music, and fellowship with Catholics from all over the country (20 states so far). The hotel group rate is $119 per night (1-4 people).

Confirmed speakers: His Eminence Raymon Leo Cardinal Burke; Fr. Mitch Pacwa, S.J.; Fr. Bill Casey, CPM; Msgr. Eugene Morris; Sr. Gianna Casino, LIHM; Patty Schneier; Susan Tassone; Ken and Mary Ann Duppong (parents of Servant of God, Michelle Duppong); and Eric Genius.

For more information, to register, or to book your hotel room please visit us at www.stlmc.org or call 314-850-7718.

SUMMER SCHEDULE

While this is several months away, to allow the faithful of the Oratory to plan accordingly, the Oratory will implement a summer schedule again. Beginning on 29 June 2026 and concluding on 14 August 2026 the Oratory will have daily Holy Mass at 12:15 pm (NO 6:30 am) with Confessions at 11:00 am. The Saturday and Sunday schedules will remain the same. The offices hours during this time will be Monday through Thursday from 8:00 am until 2:30 pm. The offices will be closed on Fridays. These scheduling changes allow the priests of the Oratory to take vacation and more importantly to make their canonical retreats. So too, the changed office hours will allow our dedicated staff time for vacation.

BLESSING OF ITEMS: NEW PROCEDURE

Going forward, the blessings of religious items will take place after the 8:00 am Holy Mass at St. Joseph Altar. This will happen on the Second Sunday of each month. In this way, items can be blessed and retrieved in a more timely manner. This process will replace bringing items to the rectory to be blessed. ALL ITEMS TO BE BLESSED MUST BE BROUGHT TO THE ST. JOSEPH ALTAR ON THE 2nd SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH BEFORE HOLY MASS. Those who desire to have items blessed should bring them to the St. Joseph Altar before the 8:00 am Holy Mass with their names clearly marked on the items to be blessed. These items should be left on the St. Joseph Altar. If there are a large number of items, they can be placed around the altar but should not impede the distribution of Holy Communion. Two blessings will be given: one for rosaries and one for all other items grouped together. There is no need to take items from their packaging. This new process began Sunday, 8 February 2026, therefore the rectory is no longer accepting items to be blessed (as of 9 February).

FIRST FRIDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

It has long been a desire of mine as rector to have more Eucharistic Adoration at the Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine. Our hope is that Adoration will take place every First Friday afternoon going forward to honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. As a reminder: faithful are needed to adopt an hour of adoration to ensure that the Blessed Sacrament is never left alone. To sign up for an hour, please email Anthony Jones at events@oratorysga.org.

ADULTS SEEKING THE SACRAMENTS OF INITIATION

* CATECHISM CLASSES WILL RESUME ON 27 MAY*

We welcome those interested in becoming Catholic. To get started in that process within the OSGA community, please email one of our priests for an introductory meeting. Their contacts are available in the bulletin. After this, candidates for Initiation at the Oratory will be directed to complete a registration form with our Administrator.

Catechism classes are held in the St Joseph Room (rectory basement) generally on a bi-monthly basis on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays from 4:00-5:15 pm.

The content surrounds a set of topics central to Catholic teaching, as set forth by Msgr. Morris. Deacon Pieper moderates most meetings through a question-and-answer format and hopes to promote sincere dialogue with the candidates regarding those topics and/or related questions. The intent is to communicate Christ and His Church. Sacraments are offered on an individual basis, on a rolling schedule throughout the year, after mutual discernment by the candidate, our deacon, and priests.

RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

For those in our community who are new to the Traditional Latin Mass, when you approach the altar rail for holy communion it is the custom to begin filling in the altar rail at the far right near St. Joseph's altar and fill in the rail until its end at the Marian altar. This practice is not impacted by which side of the Church you are seated. You are allowed, and encouraged, to switch sides in order to keep the communion line moving. This is particularly important when there are two sacred ministers distributing Holy Communion. So too, do not overly delay approaching the rail waiting for others to return to their pews. If everyone moves with attention to what is happening, there should be a flow of movement between those departing the altar rail and those approaching the altar rail. Also, for daily Holy Mass: please kneel at the rail only where the houseling cloth has been prepared for communion. Please keep in mind that we should not keep the Lord waiting but moving with grace and deliberation to the altar rail to receive our Eucharistic Lord.

WELLSPRING OF TRADITION: LOW SUNDAY – STATION AT ST. PANCRATIUS

The first Sunday after Easter is a day with many names. Most English speakers know it as ‘Low Sunday.’ While the origin of that term is not certain, most agree that the title refers in some way to the contrast between the heightened celebration of the great feast of Easter with its Octave and a return to a more normal Sunday celebration.

The official liturgical name for this day is Dominica in Albis Depositis. In the ancient rites of the catechumenate, the newly baptized (the neophytes) were vested in white baptismal robes for their Baptism, Confirmation, and first Holy Mass and Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil. They wore these robes through entire week following, and were guests of honour in the church of their baptism, where they attended Holy Mass each morning and attended a special service at the baptismal font in the afternoon. On the Saturday of Easter week they came to their baptismal church for the last time as a special group. After Holy Mass they removed their white garments and placed them in the church's wardrobe as a reminder of their baptismal vows. Hence this Saturday is called Sabbato in albis, or ‘Saturday in white (robes)’ and the following day is Dominica in albis depositis, ‘Sunday on which the white robes have been put away.’ On this Sunday they joined the faithful for Holy Mass without their white garments for the first time as all marched to the final stational church of Easter, St. Pancratius, named for a young man who was martyred at age 14 for being baptized.

Yet another name for this day is Pascha clausum or ‘Easter’s end’, referring to the fact that today is actually the Octave Day of Easter. But the used of that particular Latin word to mark the conclusion of the Easter Octave has a deeper meaning. We find clausum in today’s gospel, where it describes the closed doors of the Upper Room where the Risen Lord appeared to the disciples, minus S Thomas, and then appeared again to demolish St. Thomas’s doubts and claim his faith in the Risen Lord. In the liturgy, the Octave actually ends with the double Alleluia at the end of None on the Saturday, because we began our celebration on Saturday at the Vigil. On this day we begin the season of Paschaltide.

In many places, it is commonly known as Quasimodo Sunday. Like Gaudete and Laetare Sundays, this name is used because of the opening words of today's Introit, Quasimodo geniti infantes, (1 Pet 2:2), which refers to the neophytes who have just laid aside their white baptismal robes. A newborn child, with its instinct of self-preservation, desires its mother's milk. It needs no admonitions. We also, in order to preserve the supernatural life, should have a spontaneous longing for the nourishment of our souls, for truth, and for the Holy Eucharist. Like a mother, the Church cries out to us: Preserve the spirit of the children of God, remain simple, humble, and submissive to Him. Remain rationabiles, mature enough to think clearly, and sine dolo, able to preserve the truth without falsity, and to love without envy. And yes, this is also the reason for the name of Victor Hugo's famous hero in The Hunchback of Notre Dame, who was discovered as an abandoned baby on this day.

A few words on this famous Introit. The short antiphon is taken from the first epistle of S Peter, which we read in the third week of the Easter season. Quasi modo geniti infantes, alleluia rationabiles, sine dolo lac concupiscite, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Like newborn infants, rational, desire milk without deceit. The word rationabiles is a translation of the Greek logikon, derived from logos (Word) as we have in S John's Prologue. It refers here to the nourishment derived from the divine Logos, which was mentioned in 1 Peter 1:23 as the instrument of regeneration. We see this word also in Romans 12:1 ('reasonable service'), where the term emphasizes a rational, voluntary, and spiritual act of faith. And this desire should be without guile or pure, seeking nourishment necessary for the spiritual growth of new believers. Whence the comparison to a newborn child, with its instinct of self-preservation, desiring its mother's milk. It needs no admonitions. We also, in order to preserve the supernatural life, should have a spontaneous longing for the nourishment of our souls, for truth, and for the Holy Eucharist. Like a mother, the Church cries out to us: Preserve the spirit of the children of God, remain simple, humble, and submissive to Him. Remain rationabiles, and sine dolo; preserve the truth without falsity, and love without envy.
