FROM THE RECTOR on the Second Sunday after Easter

The Second Sunday after Easter is traditionally known as Good Shepherd Sunday reminding the newly baptized and initiated members of the faith to cling to Christ the Good Shepherd. In truth reminding all members of the family of God are to hold fast to the faith that is rooted in the Cross of Christ. In the Epistle St. Peter reminds us of the price paid by Christ for our transgressions. He also reminds us that the Lord’s sufferings are the example we should follow in our daily lives. The only way for us to carry our daily crosses is to allow the voice of God to lead and guide us. And, in order for us to hear His voice we must put aside self-directedness, willfulness and pride. St. Peter reminds us: “For you were as sheep going astray: but you are now converted to the shepherd and bishop of your souls.” To grow in humility, the cardinal virtue to deepen our trust in the Lord, requires a willingness to be humiliated. I would encourage the daily praying of the Litany of Humility attributed to and popularized by Cardinal Merry del Val. This great servant of God, Cardinal del Val, was known for his priestly zeal and pastoral charity coupled with a profound love of Christ and Holy Mother the Church. The Cardinal credits his growth in the virtue of humility as key to his ability to better cooperate with the graces of God. So, it must be for us as well. We must strive to grow in the virtue of humility to allow the other graces of God to flow easily in our lives. Christ is the Good Shepherd who cares deeply for the well-being, both spiritual and physical, of His sheep. For our part, we must rejoice in being members of His flock, docile and obedient to His voice so that we might also respond generously and promptly to His will.

IN THANKSGIVING

A word of gratitude to all who assisted in making Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum a beautiful experience for the Oratory. I am particularly grateful to the Head MCs Gregory Grizzle and Nick Werner. Their hard work along with all the servers present made it possible for us to give God fitting praise. I am also grateful to Mrs. Elisabeth Kenney and the great choir for their hard work and dedication. Their voices allowed us to sing well God’s praises. Finally, I am grateful for Juventutem for celebrating Tenebrae here at the Oratory.

CALLING ALL MEN!

The Oratory of Ss. Gregory and Augustine is looking to form a men’s group and what better way than to form our own Knights of Columbus Council. We are looking for men who are current members willing to transfer to this new council as well as men who would be new to the Knights of Columbus. Besides the regular monthly meetings, we want to build a Council where we can come together to pray the Rosary; time for Eucharistic Adoration; and times for discussion on topics that challenge us and call us to be better men, fathers, and husbands. There are many more possibilities! Whether you are a husband, father, single man or considering the priesthood, we are looking for men who want to strengthen their faith and become better Catholics. The Knights of Columbus provide wonderful opportunities for spiritual growth and evangelization. Through our new program of Faith In Action, Fathers For Good, support of our priests, Pro-life, and much more, we invite you to take a deeper look and become a part of what St. John Paul II called, "The right arm of the Church." For further information contact Joseph Miller at 314-660-8587 or joseph1971miller@yahoo.com.

AVAILABILITY OF CONFESSIONS

The Oratory will return to its normal schedule after the Octave of Easter is complete. Confessions will continue to be available on Wednesday evenings at 5:30 pm, Friday mornings at 11 am, Sunday mornings at 7 am and on First Friday and First Saturday according to those schedules. Unfortunately, at this time Confessions will not be heard at 10 am in the school building. Understandably this was a convenient time for a number of individuals; however, the preparations necessary for the 11:30 am High Mass have necessitated this change. If the times listed above are not convenient for your schedule, please call the rectory and a time can be arranged for confessions. If you desire anonymity for this process, Donna Mueller can assist you in arranging an appointment for confessions.
